PA NEW OBSERVES

Thundershowers, which were promised for last night failed to materialize again, but local folks still have hopes. And in the meantime, people are continuing to sleep out on their front porches in an effort to combat the heat.

City workmen are constructing a concrete platform in the rear of the Central fire station, where the coal is unloaded into the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sheffer, a bride and groom of the Seventh Ward section were given a memorable sendoff last evening, when they were hauled uptown and around the main street in a "one horse" chaise, attached to a truck. The equipage attracted considerable attention.

LUENDORFF WARNS CHANCELLOR HITLER

(International News Service)
MUNICH, Germany, June 29.—
Breaking through the confines of a muzzled press, General Erich von Ludendorff, German World War hero, and co-author with Chancellor Hitler of a revolutionary attempt in 1923, launched a devastating attack upon the Nazi regime today.

In his weekly newspaper Volkswarte Ludendorff characterized himself as a "better Nazi" than the present leaders of the party, violently assailed Germany's imitation of Italian Fascism and pointedly warned Hitler of the fate that befell Kaiser Wilhelm II.

Ludendorff reminded Hitler he fought shoulder to shoulder with him and faced rifle volleys from Bavarian soldiers in the streets of Munich 10 years ago. Warning the Nazi chancellor of Wilhelm's fate, Ludendorff wrote:
"He tried to establish a Reich without Socialist support, but the Socialists took power from him. The Nazis want to establish a third Reich with the help of the Catholic church but they'll live to see what course things will take."

Formally Open New Highway On Wednesday

New Castle And West Pittsburg Highway Is Fittingly Dedicated

AUTO PARADE OVER NEW ROUTE

Numerous Addresses And Then Ribbon Across The Road Is Severed

Another concrete spoke was added to Lawrence county's wheel of good highways Wednesday afternoon when the West Pittsburgh highway was formally opened. The thermometer was reaching for a new high, the sun beat down mercilessly on the road, but this did not deter several hundred people from being present.

The ceremonies opened with a parade of automobiles from Falls street to a point midway on the highway. Heading the parade was Chief of Police John Haven with a group of officers, and State Highway Patrol Officers Lawton and Sarko. Parade Marshal Alec Samuels had some fifty cars in line.

Speeches Short Ones
Because of the intense heat none of the speakers at the site of the exercise spoke very long. The chairman, Bart Richards asked that they make them short and snappy and they did. Assemblyman William McElwee, Jr., was the first speaker and expressed his pleasure that one more good highway had been completed in the county, and that the people of West Pittsburgh and the men working at New Castle Junction would be enabled to get back and forth from New Castle without having to brave the hazards of the old road.

Road Supervisor J. A. McMahon of Taylor Township was the second speaker. "I have been a supervisor for thirty years," he said, "and this road has been the one that we have

Complete Program For Cornerstone Laying At Post Office On Friday

At an appropriate ceremony on Friday evening at 5 o'clock, the cornerstones for New Castle's new postoffice and federal building, rising on the southwest quarter of the public square, will be laid.

Should rain fall at the designated hour, the program will go forward just the same. Only a heavy rainstorm will mar it.

Program Arranged.
Mayor Charles R. Mayne, head of the special executive committee of seven, today announced the complete program as planned. It follows:

Opening band numbers—Played by a Cascade park concert band.
Invocation—Rev. D. I. Ferguson,
pastor of the Highland U. P. church.
Introduction of distinguished guests—By Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand, presiding.

Flames Destroy Barn Last Night

Barn, Farm Machinery Of L.
O. Cover Ruined; Blame
Combustion

NEW BEDFORD FIREMEN AID

A huge barn and a valuable supply of farm machinery on the farm of L. O. Cover, located not far from the Mahoning Valley Grange hall on Lovellville R. D. 2 fell prey to flames at 7 o'clock last night. Efforts to quell the blaze proved futile.

A belief was held today that spontaneous combustion, created by newly mown hay which was placed in the barn last Friday, caused the fire.
No other cause could be determined.

Large Barn

While no livestock was lost, the barn, a structure 44 feet by 66 feet, was one of the largest in the section. The farm equipment damage added greatly to the loss and thirteen tons of hay was consumed.
Mr. and Mrs. Cover and their son, Merle, were sitting on the front porch of their home when a son-in-law, Clarence McClenahan, sitting on his own porch across the road, discovered the fire. Quick calls for aid went out to neighbors and the McClenahan's brother, Robert Mc-Clennahan of New Bedford, who responded with the town's chemical truck. For a time they battled the blaze, but the flames made headway.

The firefighters saved a two-story frame garage which stands only 20 feet away from the barn. A smaller building was also spared.
Mr. Cover said that, so far as he knows, no one had been in the barn
all day Wednesday.

NO RETURNS ON FIGHT TONIGHT

There is no special telegraph wire service to this newspaper for the Sharkey-Carners fight in New York, and consequently there will be no returns available at The News on the battle tonight.

Widow Held *** Mrs. Lottie Coll Is Charged With Banditry In New York

MRS. LOTTIE COLL

New York police believe they have solved the mystery of the blonde hold-up woman, who with male companions, terrorized the Bronx recently, with the arrest of Mrs.
Lottie Coll, widow of Vincent Coll,
New York gangster who was shot to death a year ago. Mrs. Coll and two men companions have been charged with murder in connection with death of Mollie Schwarz, shot to death in front of her Bronx home.

LAKEMAN BAY, ROGUE IS-LAND, Me., June 29.—Hoped for a thinning fog, which has held his schooner Amberjack II locked here for three days would lift sufficient-today kept a close watch on weather conditions.

Unruffled by three days' inactivity,
the skipper of the Amberjack yam-pared to wind up his discussions of the Geneva disarmament conference

NEW WATER CO. HEAD ARRIVES

J. L. Matthews Assumes Post
As Superintendent Of Water Co. Here

J. L. Matthews, newly appointed manager of the city of New Castle Water Company arrived today from Warren, Pa., and has assumed his duties here. Mr. Matthews succeeds Howard B. Richards, who was promoted to the management of the Birmingham, Ala. Water Company.
"New Castle is not entirely new territory to me," said Mr. Matthews
"as I have visited here a number of times. I know something of the city and its people and I know that I will like it here. As for the conduct of the water company there will be no change in policy. The company has been built up on service to the people of New Castle and it is my hope that I may be able to retain and expand the good will engendered by Mr. Richards."

For a short time Mrs. Matthews will remain in Warren, Pa., until
Mr. Matthews makes suitable housing arrangements.

Mr. Matthews is a young man but has had a wealth of experience in water company management. During the World War he was in the United States Navy serving as a seaman aboard the U. S. S. Texas on duty in the waters north of England.

Arbuckle Dies In New York Of Heart Ailment

"Fatty" Arbuckle, Once Famous Screen Comedian, Stricken In Hotel

WAS ATTEMPTING MOVIE COMEBACK

Completed Picture Wednesday, Was Involved In Murder Scandal

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 29.—Roscoe
"Fatty" Arbuckle, the 300 pound film comedian whose good natured smile once won for him one of the greatest fortunes of the screen and who was making a "comeback" after twelve years of exile from the films died suddenly in his hotel apartment early today. Death was attributed to a heart ailment. He was 46 years old.

Arbuckle was at the height of his popularity twelve years ago and had an income that ran into hundreds of thousands annually, when the death of a girl following a party, made him the storm center of a controversy that shook the movie industry itself.

It was the Arbuckle case that brought Will Hays into the movies as "Czar."

Picture Completed

Arbuckle completed a picture only yesterday. He made a few last shots at the Astoria studios then accompanied by his wife, the former Addie McPhail, motion picture actress whom he married a year ago,
he motored back to his New York Hotel.

Early this morning, Mrs. Arbuckle was awakened by groans. She found Arbuckle unconscious. Dr. Kenneth Hoffman, hotel physician, summoned hastily, examined him and broke the news to her that Fatty's fight to re-establish himself with the movie-going public of the world was over.

In the war years and just after only one movie comedian exceeded

Pennsy Car Loadings Climb To New High

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—Car-loadings on the Pennsylvania railroad last week climbed to a new high for the year when they totaled 101,047, the road announced today.

The figure was also the best reported since November 21, 1931.
Loadings last week compared with 92,390 cars handled in the preceding week ended June 17 and with 80,341 in the same week in 1932.

The report for last week's loadings represented the seventh consecutive weekly gain over the 1932 record and the ninth consecutive gain in this year's loadings.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., June 29.—California went so wet Tuesday that they arrested a guy today for bathing in water instead of native wine.

West Virginia, which by geography, breeding, dialect and style, should be southern, but politically has never been anything, well, it reached for a cocktail instead of a coke.

It's not a question of sentiment anymore, it's just a question of "where can I get hold of a ballot and where is a box to put it in?"

No wonder the Republicans appeared so dumb in there.
Anybody that couldn't judge public opinion any better than they did on this question—it's little wonder they are unemployed.

Heat Wave Continues To Grip Pennsylvania

(International News Service)
Parched Pennsylvania sizzled again today under blistering sunrays which sent the mercury racing back into the nineties.

Weather prognosticators saw little immediate relief in sight for most of the state although Philadelphia reported that partly cloudy weather was prevailing.

During the last 36 hours the heat claimed four lives throughout the state, one at Pittsburgh, one at Philadelphia, one at Farrell and one at Erie.

Lack of rainfall was causing worry to farmers as spring crops particularly vegetables just sprouting out of the ground, withered under the blazing sun and because of the dry ground.

A 47 year heat record for June 28 was shattered in Pittsburgh when the mercury mounted to 92 at 1 o'- clock, two degrees higher than ever before on that date.

Another 92 was expected in Pittsburgh today, as the thermometer read 87 at 10 a. m. Harrisburg and Philadelphia reported 81 degrees at the same hour with expectations that 90 would be reached during the day.

Kahn Reveals Sale Of Stocks To Daughter

Took $117,584 Loss On Income Tax For 1930
By Method

RE-ACQUIRED STOCKS THREE MONTHS LATER

Kahn Is Examined On Transaction Before Senate Probe Session

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 29.—Otto H.
Kahn, head of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.,
New York private bankers, took a $117,584 loss on his income tax for 1930 by a sale of stocks to his daughter, Mrs. Maude E. Marriot, he testified today at the senate banking inquiry.

Kahn explained he made the sale on December 30, 1930. Three months later he re-acquired the stocks when the daughter assigned them to him.
The double transaction, termed "illegal" by a government field agent, later was upheld by the internal revenue bureau.

The incident revealed another loophole in the income tax laws and enabled Kahn to escape federal income taxes for the year 1930.

Asks Explanation

Ferdinand Pecora, special senate counsel, asked Kahn to explain the assignment of stocks from his daughter. The assignment was dated December 31, 1930, a day after he had sold her the same stocks. Kahn said it actually was executed in March, 1931.

Kahn explained the assignment from his daughter to himself was made as one step in a plan to create a trust fund for her benefit.

"In March, 1931," he said, "my

ELECTION OCCURS AT PITTSBURGH

The ministers of the four United Presbyterian churches of the city and a number of laymen have been in attendance at the sessions of the General Assembly being held in Pittsburgh this week and were pre-chosen Wednesday.

The Rev. W. B. Anderson, D. D. of Philadelphia was chosen moderator of the General Assembly, after a closely contested election in which two ballots were taken.

Dr. Anderson is well known in the New Castle district, being a graduate of Westminster college. While he attended that institution he was quite noted as an athlete, especially as a sprinter.

He was a missionary to India and

Stabilization Issue Is Being Forced; U. S. Reiterates Recent Stand

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

GEOLOGICAL MUSE-UM, LONDON, June 29.—
The world economic conference came to a virtual standstill today, deadlocked on the issue of currency stabilization.

The European gold bloc and the powers off the gold standard, including the United States, are attempting to "pass the buck" for a threatened break-up of this international gathering.

Threats of leaving the conference are reported on all sides, but none of these reports, so far as international News Service has been able to learn, is strictly true.

Gold Bloc Outspoken

Switzerland, one of the members of the gold bloc, alone is outspoken in declaring that currency stabilization must be achieved soon or her delegation will go home.

The conference was brought to this crucial stage by a reported new affirmation on the part of the United States that it considers currency stabilization at any time in the immediate future out of the question.

Representatives of the gold nations called a virtual "strike," refusing to attend any more monetary commission meetings until something is done with regard to stabilization.

OLD VOLANT STUDENTS MEET AGAIN

College Reunion Wednesday Event

Large Crowd Gathers To Relive Campus Days
At Volant

COLLEGE FOUNDER ATTENDS EVENT

Doctors, ministers, men of law and prominent citizens of many communities dropped their mantles of dignity yesterday and were just a merry crowd of colleagues again.
It was the day of the annual Volant College reunion, a day when the former professors, graduates, students and friends of that institution met together on the old college campus at Volant, and discuss the days which for many were the happiest of their lives.
Two things made Wednesday's reunion outstanding:
First—it was the largest crowd in the history of the association.
Founder Present
And—Prof. A. A. Galbreath, of Rogers, Ohio founder of Volant College and beloved professor, was there.
Volant College, it is remembered,

students taken 40 years ago. Members of the Association is organizing the reunions and assisting in publishing the memory book were pictured also.
At Presbyterian Church
Much of the success of this year's gathering was due to the efforts of the president, Frank S. Brenneman, and the committee in charge. Lunch was served at noon in the Presbyterian church by the ladies of the church. The use of the church was granted through the kindness of the trustees.
Most of the forenoon was spent in reminiscing. Later the business meeting was called to order by the president Frank S. Brenneman, and the report of the secretary, Miss Olive Clinefelter, of New Willmington, was presented. The following new officers were then elected:

Officers Named
President—Attorney C. V. Alley,
New Castle
Vice President—Dr. Thos. George, Cleveland
Secretary—Miss Olive Clinefelter,
New Wilmington
Corresponding secretary—Mrs.
Scott Hamilton, New Castle Founder Galbreath was then introduced. He congratulated the committee upon its wonderful work.
He expressed his pleasure and surprise that after 40 years had passed such a large crowd of former students would still be interested enough to travel many miles to attend the reunion. He mentioned the memory book and stated that it was published for a definite reason—to help in bringing the students back to the old campus each year in June time.
Dr. Harry Burns, D. D. of Idaho,
well known traveler and lecturer, and a Volant College alumnus, who was one of the most popular students who ever attended the school, related some incidents of the Volant days. He told delightful stories about Judge James Chambers, Homer Drake, C. F. Ball, Harvey Martin, John Dittner, and others—stories that brought back many memories and roars of laughter from his listeners.
Others Speak
Dr. Thomas George spoke very briefly on the good fellowship of the Volant boys and girls of 40 years ago and likened them to one large household of today.
Mrs. Galbreath, remembered as the college mother, spoke affectionately of the students of the former years and of the bond of friendship which annually serves to bring them together. Rev. William Mc-Connell of Denver, Colorado, said that it was indeed a warm friendship that reaches across so many states and clutches at the hearts of all the classmates, bringing them back together.
Judge L. T. Farr of Lisbon, O. who so ably promoted the publication of the memory book, was greeted with an avalanche of applause in appreciation for his interested support.
Miss Clinefelter, secretary, read letters from John Dittner and Dr.
J. B. Bowman, dean of Mt. Union College who was unable to attend because of his wife's sudden illness.
The crowd was one in thanking
The New Castle News for the publicity it has so generously given and to the people of Volant for their many kindnesses to the aggregation.
Volant College Day, it was stated, is coming more and more to be a community day and draws scores of older residents back together.

A. A. GALBREATH

was founded by Prof. Galbreath in 1889. It was a very successful institution and continued in operation for many years, but, like many other smaller colleges and academies of that time, was crowded out of existence by the larger colleges and universities. Like the little red school house, it was a great opportunity to the students and many of the noted citizens of today secured their education in similar institutions.
Prof. Galbreath presented each member with a memory book at a very small cost. The book contains scenes of the old college campus and also pictures of the board of directors, faculty and groups of deceased members. He spoke highly of Ella Ferrell, who died after two days illness, and Curry Bingham, who was drowned in the Nesha-nock river.

President Brenneman requested the students to rise in prayer. They then, as has been the custom for years, repeated the poem "Sunset and Evening Star." Lowell Kent Leonhardt, great grandson of Thomas Clinefelter, a college trustee, was the youngest person present, while Mrs. Carr, mother of O. L. Carr and Melle Carr aged 89 years, was the oldest.
It was noted this year that many of the alumni brought their children and grandchildren with them,
this partly accounting for the size of the crowd. This point was mentioned in a talk by Prof. George Dannells, who expressed the hope that the descendants of the alumni would continue to meet through the years to come.

ting the play during the past few sweatier days and nights.
Wheat fields look like they are about ready for the visit of the reapers.
Wheat has ripened rapidly the past few days.
Cherry pickers are busy. There seems to be a good crop of cherries this season.
Arrangements are being made for Sunday evening church services at the grove at Cascade park, starting Sunday evening.
Two-cent local postage becomes effective on Saturday.
W. J. Walker of Young street made a visit to Pa New today with a suggestion that a one time popular contest be revived—the walking match. He said that years ago this was one of the great features of a Fourth of July program, and he believes that it could be revived easily and would be of much interest.
"I'm 74 years of age, but I'd be willing to enter such a match," he concluded.
Miss Margaret Moser, of Walmo,
one of Pa New's official informers, stated this morning that she tried using firecrackers to dispense with a noisy family of birds outside her home yesterday—and it worked very successfully. Firecrackers speak a language birds understand, and yet do not hurt them.
A committee is meeting tonight to make plans for the annual Mahoning school reunion. The reunion shows indications of being the biggest and best in years—and that will be some record, because this bunch of grown up kiddos has the real reunion spirit. Pa New is going to try to be there.

been trying to get improved all these years. We appreciate it deeply.
Robert M. Garland, of the Garland Manufacturing Company spoke for the residents of West Pittsburg.
"We are delighted with this new highway" said he, "and while it does not go all the way into West Pittsburg, we are hoping that now a start has been made, and that the day is not far off when West Pitsburg will be connected with New Castle by a concrete highway clear through."
Fred A. Glenn, vice president of the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company spoke for his company. "This highway has been needed for a long time" said he. "In the past three years the road to the junction has carried more full dinner buckets than any other highway in the county. Speaking for the Universal and for the men who are employed by the company, I want to express our appreciation for this splendid road. It will stand as a monument to the men responsible for it."
"A Good Neighbor"
Jack L. Thoman, terminal trainmaster of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway bespoke the appreciation of the men employed by his company at New Castle Junction. "We have tried to be a good neighbor," said he, "and we want the people of New Castle and Lawrence county to feel that we are a good neighbor.
Our men will use this highway much and each time they do I know they will remember that it replaces that old bumpy, irregular road."
Speaking for the county commissioners, P. O. Elder reviewed some of the history back of the road and said that he had been glad of the opportunity to be a member of the board of commissioners that had made the arrangements. "The arrangements were made in 1931," he said, "when Thomas J. McCullough and C. C. Boyd were my colleagues.
It has been a speedy transition from the old rural road, for less than two years from the time the governor signed the bill taking over this road, it is a finished highway."
Senator George T. Weingartner said that this was the first rural road in the state, taken over in 1931, to be built of concrete. He also said that it was the first road in the state which received more than $6, 000 per mile from the state. This highway got a $12,000 allowance. He said that the road had been needed for years carrying as it does the hundreds of workmen who are employed in the New Castle Junction district. "It is a good road and we are proud of it," he said.
District Engineer H. E. Kloss of Pittsburg was the last speaker.
"This is an honest road," said Mr.
Kloss. "It was built under the strictest supervision for your highway department insists that you must get a dollar's worth of value for a dollar." Mr. Kloss called attention to the fact that the materials in the highway for the most part were local, the cement being Lehigh, and that the road was built by a Pennsylvania contractor.

Little Miss Margie Ann Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A.
Glenn concluded the program when she cut the red ribbon that was up as a barrier. The ribbon parted, the cars started through and the new West Pittsburg highway was in use.

ARBuckle DIES IN NEW YORK OF HEART AILMENT
Arbuckle in popularity and that was Charlie Chaplin.
Famous Comedian
Arbuckle was a graduate of the Mack Sennett comedies where he played with Chaplin, Mabel Normand, Chester Conklin and many others who were famous then but are now forgotten. Arbuckle had only to turn his slow smile on the screen to get a laugh. He became a star immediately.
In 1917 he and Joseph Schenck, now president of United Artists formed a partnership for the production and distribution of his comedies. The venture was very successful.
He had come from Texas, made his stage debut at 8 with the late Frank Bacon's stock company, and arrived in the movies via the vaudeville route.
Was Great Spender
Soon the newspapers were carrying stories about Arbuckle's $20,000 automobile, especially built for his great bulk, and noting other extravagances. He was said to be generous to a fault and a great spender.
Then the story broke which removed Fatty from the screen. The district attorney of San Francisco was investigating the death of Virginia Rappe, a minor screen actress who had died in Arbuckle's hotel rooms in San Francisco. But finally he was acquitted.
Physicians testified Miss Rappe had died from natural causes.
Arbuckle was virtually forced out of the movies and the opposition to his return was unrelenting for years.
It was only a year ago that he was able to resume his own once-popular comedies.

WORLD PARLEY NEAR STANDSTILL OVER CURRENCY

to coincide with Assistant Secretary of State Moley's arrival, appeared to have failed today.
The American delegates to the world economic conference and their foremen held a prolonged session this forenoon, after which it was authoritatively stated the American delegation was not concerned with de facto currency stabilization, that matter being strictly up to President Roosevelt and the central banks.
After the session ended, one of the conferees told International News Service it had definitely decided there would be no stabilization today or in the immediate future.
It was significant, however, that Professor O. M. Sprague and James Warburg, American financial advisers, participated in the meeting.
New Proposal
When it broke up after nearly two hours, there was a further session between Secretary of State Hull, James M. Cox, Sprague, Warburg and Moley.
It was neither confirmed nor denied that the currency experts are drawing up another stabilization proposal for transmission to President Roosevelt similar to the one he rejected ten days ago.
The American delegates apparently are solidly committed to the president's formula of not wanting to tie the dollar to the pound and franc so long as rising price levels are creating better times in America.
The Anglo-French argument that this American "prosperity" is artificial rather than real has fallen on deaf ears as far as the conference delegates are concerned.

Deaths of the Day

Mr. Spear's Funeral
Funeral services for the late Theodore Spear, of East Lackawanna township, Mercer county, were held at the late residence, Mercer, R. D.
No. 8 on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time with Rev. E. O. McNulty, pastor of the New Wilmington M. E. church in charge. Frank Yarian, Mary Yar-ian and Mrs. Fair sang: "It Is Well With My Soul" and "Asleep in Jesus" during the service. There were many flowers and the services were very largely attended. The pallbearers were James Osborne, Paul Osborne, Carl Swartz, Link Axtell,
George McCoy and Frank Yarian.
Interment was made in Hoagland cemetery.
Mrs. Susan Beight
Mrs. Susan Beight, aged 63, wife of Alva T. Beight, North Beaver township, died at the family home on the Beesmer-Mt. Jackson road at 10 o'clock this morning following an illness of one week.
She was born in Lawrence county, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Beck, and had resided here all her life. She was a member of the Old Springfield Lutheran church.
She is survived by her husband and one brother, William F. Beck,
New Castle.
Funeral services will be held Saturday at three p. m. from the residence, with the Rev. Mr. Probst of Petersburg in charge, and interment will be made in the Petersburg cemetery.

erected at a contract price of $209,- 000, will afford one of the most convenient and most magnificent government structures in this section when completed. Upstairs over the postoffice rooms will be quarters for different government departments having branch offices here.
The three New Castle service clubs, donors of the silver towels with which the stone will be set into place, will have representatives to present their gifts to Postmaster MacNab and the two ex-postmasters. For Rotary, President W. J.
Caldwell will attend; for Kiwanis, President Norman E. Clark, and for the Lions, President-elect Paul G.
Dingley, who will be installed July 11.
The entire force of the postoffice will be present to see the stone of their future home placed.
The building will be occupied, it is believed, sometime late in the spring of 1934.

daughter arrived in this country.
I discussed her affairs and went over a plan to set up a trust fund to her.
It was part of the plan that she turn over her securities to me. The assignment of these stocks was made March 31, 1931, but the assignment was dated December 30, 1930.
Kahn revealed that in April, 1932, he explained he was in Europe at the time. His attorneys appealed to the New York office of the internal revenue bureau, he said, submitting proof that the securities were not re-acquired in 30 days. The New York office and the Washington office of the internal revenue bureau, after making an investigation, upheld
Kahn by allowing the loss.

AFTERNOON TEA ATTRACTS WOMEN

Thirty eight small tables were arranged about the banquet room of the Third United Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon when the members of the Women's Missionary Society were hostesses at a pretty afternoon tea.

Snap dragons, delphinium and roses were artfully arranged on the tables and about the room, giving a garden effect to the room.

Mrs. Calvin Clark was in charge of the program which entertained the women in the early part of the afternoon and the opening number was a piano solo by Margaret Leslie; a trio from the Epworth church; Ruth Galbraith, Emily Reynolds and Mary Catherine Jackson, accompanied by June Galbraith, sang; Ruth Joshua gave a reading; Alice Reed gave a violin selection; little Thomas Cobb, a colored lad, entertained with songs and readings; little Margaret Rook had a reading and Section B of the Y. L. B. class presented a group of songs and the closing number was a piano duet by Elizabeth Aiken and Jean Cope-Jand.

Cooling refreshments were then served the guests by the hostess at each table.

Silent Eight Club

Mrs. John Mariacher, Rose avenue, entertained at a pretty appointed party Wednesday evening when she received the members of the Silent Eight club for the bi-weekly session of bridge.

When play was concluded prizes were awarded Mrs. Earl Bishop, Mrs. William Reynolds and Mrs. Eva Cannon and then the hostess arranged the tables for a most cooling menu of refreshments.

Special guests included Mrs. Earl Bishop, Mrs. Ollie Grattius and Mrs. Jack Eustace of Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. William Reynolds of Moody avenue will be hostess to the group at the next session.

Jokers Club Guests

The Jokers Club enjoyed the delightful hospitality extended by Margaret O'Connell Wednesday evening when she entertained at a popular inn on the Harlansburg road. A contest in 500 formed the main diversion, the trophies for honors being presented to Mrs. Kenneth McCaslin and Betty Isaac.

A very delicious lunch was served at a suitable hour at prettily decorated tables. Special guests of the evening included Miss Anna Gallagher who received the hostess gift, Mrs. May Albin and Mrs. Burns.

SEASON CLOSURES WITH PICNIC AT CASCADE

New Castle Chapter 105 Order of Eastern Star closed the season with a picnic for the members and friends and families at Cascade Park Wednesday evening and two hundred and fifty were seated at tables arranged in the grove and a most delicious picnic dinner was served from the baskets prepared by the women. Mrs. Edna Lutz and her committee were in charge of the table arrangements.

Mrs. Hazel Boyd and her committee had a number of novel games, races and stunts prepared for the group, with young and old joining in the fun. The children were presented with ice cream, pop, candy, grab bags and favors.

When dinner was over the swimming pool was a popular place, as well as the dancing pavilion and various amusements of the park. Mrs. Flora DeVassie was in charge of the general arrangements and she was aided by an efficient committee.

SEWING WEDNESDAY AT JAMESON HOSPITAL

The usual weekly morning sewing session held Wednesday at the Jameson Memorial hospital for the purpose of compiling articles to be used in the institution, was well attended by interested ladies in the city. The hours from 9 until 12 o'clock were observed and a most creditable amount of work was accomplished.

Other meetings of this nature are being scheduled.

Warrack Reunion

Approximately 75 were in attendance Wednesday afternoon and evening when the Warrack reunion was held on the grounds of Senator and Mrs. George T. Weingartner on the Butler road. Members of the family connection from Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio were present.

At seven o'clock a picnic dinner was served on the lawn, following which a business meeting was held. Senator Weingartner was re-elected president of the association and with him the same officers who served the past year.

The reunion of 1934 will be held at the same place late in June.

Class To Meet

Mrs. Roy Shaffer, R. D. 2, will entertain the members of the Women's Bible class of the Church of the Nazarene in her home this evening.

BUILDERS EXEMPLIFY WORK AT CATHEDRAL

New Castle Chapter No. 1, Order of Builders, met in the East lodge room of the Cathedral on June 28. The evening activities consisted of the exemplification of their ritualistic work and opened with the presentation of the Bible to the initiates by Griff Thomas.

Following, the ceremony of the roses was put on by the retiring Master Builder John Templeton, Jr. After a short recess the retiring master installed his successor, Omar Donaldson, and the following corps of officers: Henry Lawton, Robert Allen, Howard Gresham, Charles Cotton, Samuel McBride, William Fox, Jack Mecklin, Clyde McCready, Paul Kiebsman, Merle Fisher, David Fisher, David Gatrell, Charles Dinsmore, Wilbur Gossman, Glen McClellan and William Stoner.

Past Master John Templeton, Jr., with his past masters Jewell, William Stoner presented the flowers.

On Friday, June 30, the Builders will meet at the Cathedral for their annual treasure hunt to take place at the farm of Glen Templeton of Slippery Rock. The boys will leave here at 7:30 o'clock. About sixty will be in attendance.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY AT ASHMORE HOME

On Wednesday, June 28, a memorable event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Ashmore, 410 Norwood avenue, when they held an "at home" event during the afternoon and evening as a means of observing their golden wedding anniversary. The occasion proved a complete surprise to the majority of the hundred and fifty guests who shared.

Many relatives and friends were present from Pittsburgh, Youngstown, O., Sharon, Akron, O., Grove City, Mercer, New Wilmington and this vicinity.

The honored couple were married fifty years ago in the Prospect church, Mercer county. Mrs. Ashmore prior to her marriage was Emma Mae Hoagland, daughter of Seth and Elizabeth Phillips Hoagland.

The occasion was most informal and those in the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Ashmore were their children, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Douthett, Elsa Ashmore and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Offutt, the latter of Butler.

In serving the guests with lunch those in charge were assisted by Ethelyn Mae Douthett, Betty Jane Offutt, Bruce and Seth Douthett, grandchildren of the honored ones. The menu and room appointments were carried out in the appropriate tones of yellow and white.

O. E. A. CLUB HAS PICNIC AT PARK

Members of the O. E. A. club and their families gathered at Cascade park Wednesday evening to the number of 42 and enjoyed a picnic dinner. The sumptuous menu was served at 7 o'clock in the grove at an attractively arranged table. Following the feature the various park amusements provided entertainment as well as the swimming pool and dance pavilion.

Plans are formulating for the next meeting to be held at the summer home of Mrs. J. P. Walter sometime in July.

Campbell Reunion

The descendants of Joseph Campbell will have their second annual reunion July Fourth at the home of S. S. Shimp, 1158 County Line street.

MCCANN-SHIFFLER NUPTIALS PERFORMED

Miss Edie Jean McCann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCann, of Clayton street, became the bride of Harvey Shiffler, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shiffler of Lathrop street at a quiet ceremony Wednesday evening, June 28, in the parsonage of the Mahoning Methodist church. The Rev. W. H. Downing, pastor, read the nuptials at 7 o'clock.

The bride was attired in a flesh satin gown with turban to match and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses intermingled with delphinium and maidens hair fern. Her sister, Mrs. Lila Thayer wore a frock of Eleanor blue crepe with hat to match and her shoulder corsage was made up of roses and delphinium.

John Grommes served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to twenty guests. Twelve were seated about the bridal table centered with a large cake flanked with flowers.

Mrs. McCann was assisted by Mrs. J. P. Walter in serving.

Later in the day the couple left on an extended motor trip and upon their return will reside in New Castle. A smart rose linen swag ensemble was chosen by the bride for traveling, with accessories to match.

RUTH LOUISE PORTER WEDS GLENN MCCREARY

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo L. Porter, 147 East Wallace avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Louise, to Glenn Edward McCreary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. McCreary, West Washington street extension.

The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock this morning before the altar of the First Presbyterian church, with Dr. Walter E. McCune, pastor of the church, officiating, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a blue print frock with accessories of white, and the couple was attended by Miss Frances Gibson, Neshannock avenue, and John Beals, Moody avenue.

Supplementing the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, with covers marked for the immediate families of the bride and groom, at a table beautifully suggestive of the event.

Mrs. McCreary is a graduate of the New Castle high school, while the groom is from Union high and also a graduate of business college. He is associated with his father in well drilling and road contracting business.

Mr. and Mrs. McCreary will reside in New Castle.

NOVEL BRIDGE HONORS PITTSBURGH GUEST

Mrs. Robert Frazier, Highland avenue, entertained at a novel bridge Tuesday in honor of her house guest, Miss Betty Neff, of Pittsburgh, the guests including associates of the Lucky Bridge club and others.

The occasion took place on the front veranda lasting from 10 o'clock in the morning until 2 in the afternoon. A cards contest occupying the greater part of the leisure period. Lovely prizes were awarded to Miss Doris Updegraff and Miss Emily Reynolds for honor scores. Miss Neff was the recipient of a beautiful remembrance from the hostess.

Shortly after noon a refreshing collation was served by the hostess assisted by the Misses Marian Hughes and Jean Patterson.

The balance of the afternoon was spent in swimming at a popular bathing resort.

B. B. B. Club Entertains

Mrs. George Brodbeck of Maryland avenue was a pleasing hostess Wednesday evening to members of the B. B. B. club at her home. The attention of the guests was occupied with cards prior to the dinner going to Mrs. Walter Gross and Mrs. Maurice Boyd. A special gift was presented to Mrs. Charles Wetmore, who was a visitor of the members. The latter assisted in serving a dainty repast at the close of play.

On Saturday evening of this week Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Richards will entertain the club at a winner roast at their cottage located at Wilmington Junction. Husbands will be special guests on this date.

The next regular meeting will be held July 19 at the home of Margaret Elieby on North Walnut street.

Class Entertained

The Huston Bible class of the Second U. P. church taught by Margaret Husto, enjoyed a picnic Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blair on the Harlansburg road, the latter being a member of the class.

Dinner was served at noon on tables placed on the lawn. Pink roses were used in profusion for decorative purposes. The afternoon was spent in a social manner. The affair was brought to a close with a very short devotional exercise led by Mrs. W. J. McCulla the president.

St. Andrews Guild Outing

The St. Andrews Junior Guild marked another successful event on their calendar of summer activities Tuesday evening when they assembled at Cascade park for a 6:30 o'clock dinner.

During the course of serving a delectable menu it was revealed that Mrs. Ade Riley has been married 17 years and in recognition of it being her anniversary she was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses. Plans were made for a breakfast to take place on the morning of July 7 at Cascade park.

Carr Reunion

The 45th annual reunion of the Carr family will be held at Cascade Park on Saturday, July 8.

Luckies
Please

To my brothers...I owe the pleasure of smoking Luckies

When I first had a desire to smoke, I knew exactly where to start. You see, for years I had heard all the men in the family saying "Luckies Please". They said it was "Toasting" that made Luckies so good. I've never questioned the reason—because I have always found Luckies so fragrant, so mild—and (perhaps a man will smile at this) so pure to my lips! I can smoke lots and lots of them and still find them refreshing to the taste. Now I'm telling my brothers "Luckies Please", and each of them says, "You're telling me?"

ENGAGEMENT NEWS OF LOCALLY KNOWN GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Davis of Norwood, Philadelphia, announced the engagement of their daughter Gertrude Marjorie to George Edmund Johnson of Moore, Pa., at a tea given in the Century Club of Norwood on Saturday, June 24.

Miss Davis is a graduate of the Glen-Wor high school and of West Chester State Teachers College. For the past three years she has been a teacher in the Norwood schools. Mr. Johnson attends Drexel Institute at Philadelphia.

The bride-elect is a niece of Mrs. J. C. Lewis of Edison avenue, New Castle, and having frequently visited here, has a host of friends who will be interested to learn of the coming event.

Ludwig Employees Picnic

One hundred and more employees of five of his companies, with their families, were guests of Max Ludwig at an all-day outing yesterday at the Castle Hills golf course. Mr. Ludwig was chief host and chairman of arrangements.

Two delicious dinners, one at noon and the other in the evening, and muskell, swimming and golf were the day's features.

Auxiliary Entertains

The Auxiliary to the V. F. W. entertained the members and friends at a delightful card party in the Legion Home Wednesday evening with five hundred and bingo as the evening's amusement.

Prizes in five hundred were awarded Mrs. Helen Ray, Mrs. Lucy Wooley, Frank Connors and Roy Evans; while bingo prizes went to Sue Flynn and Mrs. Rebecca Strong.

At the close of play a most tempting lunch was served, with Mrs. Irene Cagle and her committee in charge.

Surprise Shower

Miss Emily Love, bride-elect of the summer, was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening at the home of Helen Brown, East Washington street when she entertained a group of girls from Nelsner's store at a shower.

Music, dancing and chat whiled away the hours and at a suitable time lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her mother Mrs. Brown. Novel corsages marked places for twenty-five guests.

The honored guest was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts.

Leonhardt Reunion

The Leonhardt family reunion will be held all day July Fourth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Leonhardt, Ellwood R. D. 1, and friends and relatives will join in dinner and supper.

1907 Club Members

Tables of 500 formed the pastime for 1907 club members Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. James O'Laughlin who entertained at their regular session. Mrs. J. C. Carr and Mrs. John Logue were winners of the honor score prizes.

At a suitable hour the hostess assisted by her granddaughter Dorothy O'Laughlin served a tasty lunch.

Mrs. Mary Geddis of Huron avenue will entertain in two weeks at her home.

Friday

Spoon club, Mrs. John Elder, hostess.

H. G. L. Girls' club, Rhoda Hookway, Electric street.

J. F. F. club, picnic at McNutt cottage, Lakewood.

Sin-Mar-Bridge Club

The Sin-Mar-Bridge club members were pleasantly received Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Lucille Emery on Laurel avenue. The hours were devoted to cards and the prize for high honors was awarded to Miss Marce Biddle, a special guest of the occasion.

In serving a dainty lunch, the hostess was assisted by her mother. Appointments suggestive of the season prevailed throughout.

In two weeks the club members will hold their meeting at Cascade Park in the form of a picnic.

Section Two Meets

Mrs. Ella Pool of Bellevue, a former resident of the city, entertained the members of Section Two of the First Christian church in the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday afternoon for a social time.

The women planned for a picnic July 14 at Cascade Park, with dinner served at noon.

To conclude the afternoon refreshments were served the women.

Itchy Eczema Affected Face and Head. Healed by Cuticura.

"My trouble with eczema began with large, red pimples that festered and scaled over and affected my face and head. It itched and burned and I scratched a great deal, causing eruptions and disfigurement. I could not sleep at night and when I perspired it caused my face to itch and burn."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample of each. They helped me so I purchased more, and after using two cakes of the Soap and three boxes of the Ointment I was completely healed, in about six weeks." (Signed) Miss Pauline E. ### "IT MAY COME IN HANDY"

I knew a young couple who moved in an automobile across the continent, and packing their possessions for the trip was quite a problem. They had no furniture and they wanted to carry everything in the car. The difficulty was deciding what to take and what to leave behind.

They hadn't been married long, and they had a considerable number of small gifts and knickknacks. She wanted to take them along, but he said no, there wouldn't be room. So she sadly surrendered most of them—left them behind or gave them away. . . . And across the continent they drove, in a heavily laden car.

When they unpacked, she came upon a heavy box, and when she opened it she found it was full of radio parts, screws, lengths of wire, nails and other things like those. . . . He didn't have room for her precious gifts, but he had to make room for his tinkering toys. Was she disgusted? . . . Yes, she was.

She laughs now when she tells that story. He laughs, too, in a sheepish sort of way. And all the women to whom she tells it howl with glee and cap it with other stories about their husbands. It seems that they are all alike. They all save things. They all have a precious drawer in their homes where they stow away their treasures, the small objects that "will come in handy some day." . . . The wives throw things away, the men rush madly to the rescue and save them—nails, screws, bits of glass, small bottles, tin, rubber, bolts, washers, small wheels, insulators, bicycle tape, spools, hinges, hooks and eyes, lengths of rope, twine, ball bearings, scores of other precious bits of junk.

But they are NOT junk. They are wealth. You can't buy such things. You must save them. . . . Sooner or later a man will find a use for them. He can use the broken glass to scrape paint. He'll make an odd-size washer out of that scrap of rubber. He'll put small screws in that bottle. Everything will come in handy if he lives long enough. See if it doesn't.

The wives laugh. . . . but the husbands grin understandingly at each other. They are NOT small boys with mangle collecting tendencies and habits. They are far-sighted, grown-up men, who know what's what. When will those laughing, ridiculing wives ever understand that?

FAMILY CONFIDENCES

Is there a lack of frankness and confidence in your home?

Is there a certain reserve that should not exist between family groups?

Do you fail to take your family into your confidence in all matters?

Why?

Is it because you are engaged in matters which you might not be approved of, if known?

Is it because your family has members who talk too much?

Have you heard of certain ones repeating some of the things which may have been said and which should not have passed beyond the confines of the family home?

It may be that your family have commented too freely on your personal affairs that you consider of a private nature, and so you have become reticent.

All the members of a family should learn early that personal and private matters are taboo when it comes to telling them outside, to the neighbors or to anyone, whether social or business friend.

Family matters should be sacred to your family—not told to dearest friends.

Naturally, if little things leak out that you want to keep to yourself, there is less freedom of speech and some one feels left out.

OBEDIENT

Time was when I was young and bold,
Mad as the well-known hatter,
To my opinion I could hold
In many a doubtful matter;
But I gave up long years ago,
When choices lie before me,
My personal preferences to show,
My mind is made up for me.

Whatever our little problems are,
To speak the truth compels me,
To say I've found it easier far
To do as Nellie tells me.

For seven and twenty years we've shared
Both fair and stormy weather,
And hand-in-hand life's path we've fared Contentedly together.

When'er my whim with hers has crossed
My wisdom I've not vaunted,
But let the argument be lost
To do as Nellie wanted.

I've found it much the simpler way,
From grievous care it rids me,
And so, "All right, my dear!" I say,
And do as Nellie bids me.

Oh, should the rug be green or red,
My whim is quickly shaken,
Though I my choice for green have said,
The red's the one we've taken.

Now some there are who say to me,
To be so weak and wavery
In times of doubt is cowardly
And nothing short of slavery.

But I will put my preference by Until the last blow falls me,
And gladly, to the day I die,
Do just as Nellie tells me.

Country Shares Recreation Of President Aboard Vessel

Roosevelt Vigor Found In Method Of Enjoying Freedom From Cares Of Executive Office, With Change Of Scene As Tonic

People of the nation take pleasure in the President's vacation. They see in his method of resting from official cares further evidence of the vigor that is associated with the Roosevelt name. Freely giving credit for the things he has accomplished since he entered office, they voice appreciation of the freedom that is to be found on shipboard, and even the storm is a welcome interruption of routine.

"This 45-foot schooner, the Am-berjack II, becomes for a time the world's foremost ship," says the TOLEDO BLADE, with the suggestion that, "with the nation's Chief Executive sailing the sea in such a boat, the democratic traditions of the country are upheld." The Blade pictures the human side of the cruise with the description: "The sea-loving President, commander-in-chief of the Navy, does not require the mightiest battleship of the fleet for his vacation. A sturdy two-master with bunks aboard for six is enough. He may take a turn at the wheel whenever and as often as he likes. Certainly that will be a pleasant diversion and change from the helmman's assignment he has had since March 4. Noising in and out of the tiny harbors along the North Atlantic coast, he will certainly encounter quieter waters than he has been on in recent months. If he cares to, he may open a can of beans in the galley and even spill them without causing columns of comment. As skipper of his own borrowed boat he may lounge about, skip a shore, lie on the deck without danger of diplomatic discourtesy."

"A very proper salty 'tang' is recognized by the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE in 'the story of the Am-berjack II beating out a storm of the rock-bound coast of New England and coming into port under full foremast and forestaysail, with the mainsail hauled down. The Chronicle records that 'Skipper Roosevelt is said to have enjoyed the adventure,' and that 'millions of Americans enjoyed reading about it.' That paper continues: 'They like to think of their Chief Magistrate as a devotee of the adventurous life, and they are convinced that sailing a 45-foot schooner should prove a relaxing method of the President's vacation. The fact of sailing the Ship of State for three months during which it would seem he kept nearly a 24-hour watch on the bridge. Few Presidents have been so constantly on the job as Mr. Roosevelt has been since March 4. Certainly none has made so many long cruises while navigating the craft. President Roosevelt has earned his vacation. His prodigious labors are enough to make the onlooker weary merely by thinking of them.'"

"If anything were needed," suggests the TEXARKANA GAZETTE, "to prove that the President belongs to the same family as the former President Theodore Roosevelt, you could find it easily enough by examining the Rooseveltian method of taking a vacation. There seems to be just one word to describe the Rooseveltian attitude toward recreation, gusto. Teddy Roosevelt showed it constantly. Whether he was hunting in the Far West, rafting down the rapids of the Colorado, or through Africa, he never left anyone in doubt that he was thoroughly enjoying every minute of it. And you need only read the accounts of Franklin Roosevelt's trip on that little yacht to realize that he, too, gets tremendous soul-satisfying kick out of his recreation. The ability to throw one's self wholeheartedly into play in that way is a tremendously valuable asset."

Other factors than the enjoyment of recreation are not to be overlooked, in the opinion of some newspapers. The LOWELL EVENING FREE PRESS, for example, says: "The President's cruise gives some opportunity for relaxation, he cannot shake off all his official cares. Witness the interviews en route," continues that paper, "with Professor Moley, Budget Director Douglas, Colonel House and others, to say nothing of messages relayed to the conveying vessels to which he must give some attention. But at least he attends to these duties in different surroundings. If he does not get a complete holiday, there is a change of scene. And that helps."

Pictorial representation of the cruise, offered by the AKRON BEACON JOURNAL, is frankly an exaggeration, in portraying a vacation vessel beset by gun hunters swarming in airplanes, airships, rowboats, parachutes and other means of locomotion, "to demand justice and a chunk of pie." The Beacon Journal states: "Actually it isn't as bad as that yet, of course; but it's going to be worse, for once the ending of that vacational automatically gives the signal, there will start a stampede of job seekers outnumbering all the mob members used in films, talking and silent, since Cecil B. De Mille first looked upon a bathtub and found it art. To the usual appointments as collectors, marshals, district attorneys, and what not, add the 30,000 political jobs to be created in connection with the new 'recovery' legislation, and you'll have some idea of the

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

COMING BACK

"The advance toward national recovery which there has been evidence now for a period of two months is supported by information reaching the Reconstruction Finance Corp.," so says Jesse H. Jones, Chairman. He based his statement on the decrease in applications for loans to banks, and the rate of liquidation on the outstanding loans.

Mr. Jones said, "reports to Washington from loan agencies throughout the country indicate the period of extreme gravity is behind us."

"Up to the present time the corporation has been repaid approximately $500,000,000 of the money which it put into the financial and credit stream of the nation prior to the bank holiday."

"Repayments to the Regional Agricultural Corp., which was loaned $130,000,000 now total $7,500,000." He said, "the most important duty of the corporation today is the restoration of sound banking in communities where banking facilities are lacking or greatly curtailed."

"Banks are being reopened at the rate of more than 125 a week during April and there was an improvement in the rate during May. Purchases of preferred stock by the Reconstruction Finance Corp. so far total more than $52,000,000. The government to that extent has become a partner with the local interests throughout the United States in the resumption of credit facilities."

"The government stands ready to expand that partnership whenever possible and necessary."

Bible Thought For Today

It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.—Proverbs 21:19.

TODAY Is The Day

By CLARK KINNAIRD (Copyright, 1933) Central Press

THURSDAY, JUNE 29

Notable Birthdays—Peter Paul Rubens, born 1577, master painter; Luiza Tetrassini, born 1871, singer; George W. Goethals, born 1858, builder of the Panama Canal; Dr. William Mayo, born 1861, distinguished surgeon of Rochester, Minn.; William E. Borah, born 1856, senator from Idaho; E. W. Kemmerer, born 1875, Princeton professor and economic adviser to foreign nations.

Sa. Peter and Paul. This is a feast day in honor of the two chief Apostles. It is well known that St. Peter, the son of Jonas, and brother of Andrew, obtained his name (signifying a rock) from the Saviour, in place of his original one of Simon, on becoming an Apostle. He suffered martyrdom by the cross at Rome in 68 A. D. in one of the persecutions of Nero.

The custom adhered to now by all popes of changing their names when elevated, comes from Peter Di Porcia, who when elected in 884 to wear Peter's crown, deemed that it would be presumptuous to have himself styled Peter II, and chose instead the name Sergius II. No pope has used the name of Peter since.

On the other hand, the name of the Apostle Paul, taken by Saul of Tarsus, originally a rabbi, has been used by many popes.

1853—Henry Clay, the great pacifist, died. Ten years later the war between the states which he was able to avert in his lifetime, was raging. Clay is buried at Lexington, Ky., beneath one of the highest monuments ever erected. He staved off war's thunderbolts, once lightning beheaded his statue.

1925—Earthquake rased Santa Barbara, Calif. It was completely rebuilt in old Spanish style within a year.

1927—Richard E. Byrd and his companions, Balchen, Noville and Acosta, flying the Atlantic in the wake of Lindbergh, became lost in looking for Paris and after flying over France for hours finally landed on the coast.

1930—Roger Q. Williams with two companions, flew to Bermuda and return, in 17 hours.

Why June Isn't Hottest Month—The heating influence of the sun increases with the sun's altitude at noon. The greatest accession of heat is at the time of the summer solstice. But although sun reaches zenith in June, it isn't the warmest month.

In June, in the north temperate zone, the heat received by day far exceeds the loss through radiation by night, and it is not until July or August that the two become equal and the maximum temperature of the year is experienced.

In South America now, winter is beginning. The seasons are directly opposite to ours in the south temperate zone.

FIGHTING DEPRESSION WITH ADVERTISING

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has urged many ways of overcoming adverse business conditions. Now he declares that the co-operation of advertising will be most valuable in the advent of improved levels and the restoration of trade.

The president expresses these sentiments in a telegram sent to the convention of the Advertising Federation of America, in Detroit. Mr. Roosevelt hopes that the high standards which have made advertising an economic and social force of vital importance will be continued. He rates the assistance of the advertising men very high. He tells them that by doing their work well and elevating it as far as possible they will be serving their "country and their government." There is no exaggeration in this statement. Industrial recovery can be brought about only by the sale of goods, and that in turn depends upon intelligent advertising.

General Hugh S. Johnson, administrator of the National Recovery act, points out that the same thing in a more specific fashion. He declares that those who are charged with putting this legislation into effect are deeply encouraged by the interest of the advertising men and women. He says: "Advertising is certain to be an important factor in the new industrial relationship under the terms of the act. In its effect the law will bring to the fore the sales problem of the manufacturer and will emphasize the importance of an accurate knowledge of his markets." Being a practical man and not merely a theorist, General Johnson realizes that it is not enough to make the goods; they must be brought to the attention of the buyer; and no better way of doing that has yet been devised than by the power of the printed word.

Many years ago it was said that "it pays to advertise." That was in the days when the value of advertising was not fully appreciated. Since then the truth of the slogan has been generally acknowledged. Today we have reached another milestone in the history of the art. It not only pays to advertise now, but the man who fails to do so is in grave danger of being left behind in the race.

JOBHOLDERS WILL PAY

Financially speaking, the Democratic party now has less need for federal patronage than it had after the 1928 campaign. But that does not mean it will not make the fullest use of the spoils.

When the ill-fated 1928 campaign closed the Democratic national committee was $1,500,000 in the red. It now owes only $528,642 and has $44,061 in the treasury. One small assessment against the thousands of federal jobholders, who accept that as part of the bargain, will wipe out the debt and put more dollars in the treasury.

The $700,000 "mortgage" John J. Raskob, national chairman in 1928, held against Democracy has been reduced to only $80,250 through payments by the debtor and partial cancellation by the creditor. Democracy found in him its first real "angel" and still calls him its biggest creditor.

Even before Washington started to hand out the jobs the Democratic party was finding it relatively easy to collect money, and it has seldom found money-raising easy. In three months it collected $345,143.

GIFT OF LINDBERGH'S

It would have been a degraded thing to turn the Lindbergh estate at Hopewell into a roadhouse, as some would-be purchasers intended.

Now Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh have prevented that forever by turning over the estate to a non-profit-making corporation which they have formed "to provide for the welfare of children, including their education, training, hospitalization, and other allied purposes, without discrimination in regard to race or creed."

Associated with them in the project will be Dr. Abraham Flexner, a world authority on education, and Owen R. Lovejoy, the famous executive secretary of the Children's Aid Society of New York City.

It is a fine use to which the Lindberghs are putting the house that brought them such a sad experience, and again they are proving themselves worthy of the respect and admiration in which they are held by all their countrymen.

RAILROAD EARNINGS SHOW GAIN FOR MAY

A measure of expanding business has been generally noted in the rise of freight car loadings. Last week a gain of 23,365 cars over the preceding week represents an increase of four per cent, and over the corresponding week of 1932 an increase of thirteen per cent. Weekly change, of course, is far from an infallible guide unless observations are made over a reasonably long period.

Fortunately this may be partly corroborated in the railroad earnings for May, which for the first time since January reflected a neat operating income in excess of the corresponding month a year ago. The ensuing decline which reached the trough of the depression in March made a notable climb in April this year, though still below the net operating income of April, 1932. But the May net of nearly $25,000,000, a gain of 167 per cent over the previous May, was epochal.

These figures are based on the returns of the first forty-two railroads to render their reports. Only three carriers showed deficits, while no less than fifteen had deficits for May, 1932. The total for the five months, however, is still below the mark of last year despite the big spurt given by last month's aggregate. But the significant thing is the trend. That is definitely upward and seems to harmonize with other evidences of reawakening prosperity.

State rights, like others, seem sacred only to the minority that has present need of them.

A wife is one who asks, after you have nodded to a passerby, "Do I know him?" knowing that she doesn't.

And if a man makes a better mouse trap, the world thinks him an authority on the tariff, money and morals.

It is costing Morgan and his aides $2,000 a day for five floors in a Washington hotel but it is believed the business can stand it.

Who says things aren't improving? Just think of the hundreds of brokers who have gone back to work. Next thing you know the army of bond salesmen will be bestirring itself.

Westminster College Instructors In Roles Of Summer Students

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 20.—Eight Westminster college professors and instructors are registered in graduate schools this summer. Others are traveling, teaching, camping, attending conventions, and visiting the Century of Progress in Chicago.

Mrs. Mary C. McConagha, assistant professor in speech, will complete her work for the M. A. degree at Columbia university. Miss Florence White, assistant professor in modern language, will take graduate work at Ohio State.

Miss Pearl Hoagland, instructor in psychology and education, will continue her studies for the M. A. degree at the University of Iowa. Miss Mildred Altman, librarian, will attend the University of Chicago and will visit the Century of Progress exposition.

Professor Ben Euwema, head of the English department, will study at the University of Chicago where he is completing his thesis for the Ph. D. degree. Ross Ellis, instructor in business administration, will attend the University of Chicago and visit the World's fair.

Ronald Jones, instructor in business administration, will study at Ohio State. Professor Leon S. Marshall, assistant professor in the history department, is in Manchester, England, studying at Manchester university. Marshall won the English-speaking scholarship for a year of study at Manchester.

Gordon Balch Nevin, professor of pipe organ, will spend the summer in Easton, Pa., and Schenectady, N. Y. In Easton he will complete the work on several unfinished manuscripts of his father, the late Dr. George B. Nevin, who was nationally known as a composer of church music.

The department of public instruction at Harrisburg has requested Professor Nevin to assemble a permanent exhibit of manuscripts, letters, published works, and other items as a memorial to his father. In Schenectady, Professor Nevin works with Professor H. A. Schauflier of Union College, the librettist of the opera, "Following Foster's Footsteps". This opera, produced by Professors Nevin and Schauflier, is being revised at the suggestion of the publishers so that it will be for mixed voices, the original having been written for women's voices.

Dr. J. A. Swindler, registrar and professor of physics, is visiting in Indiana, and will attend the meeting of the American Physical society at the World's fair.

Professor Donald O. Cameron of the Conservatory of music is traveling during the summer, and will probably spend some time camping in Canada. Dr. Herbert L. Davis, assistant professor in chemistry, is completing some research in the college laboratory. He plans to visit in Harrisburg and New Jersey later this summer.

A number of professors and their families are remaining in New Wilmington for the greater part of the summer.

Danish Ship To Act As Base For Lindbergh Flight

Danish Ship Being Loaded With Necessary Equipment, Will Go To Greenland

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—Loaded with fuel and provisions, the Danish steamer, Jelling, sails from Philadelphia for the West Coast of Greenland where she will be the "mother-ship" for the survey of an aerial passenger route across North Atlantic waters to be made by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

A pontooned monoplane will be taken aboard the ship from the Philadelphia navy yard and then she will leave under the command of Capt. Oscar Hogstad, of Copenhagen.

Will Send Group To State Chamber Meeting Next Week

Effort Is Being Made To Send Large Delegation To Trade Recovery
Session

Efforts are being made by officers of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce to send a delegation to Harrisburg for an important meeting called by the State Chamber of Commerce on Friday, July 7.

Invitations have been extended to directors and members of the local Chamber of Commerce to attend this meeting, the purpose of which is to acquaint industrial leaders with the provisions of the National Industrial Recovery Act.

John C. Gall, of the National Association of Manufacturers, will be the principal speaker at the meeting, which will be preceded by a dinner in the Penn-Harris Hotel at 12 o'clock, noon, standard time.

New Safety Record In Cement Industry

Only Six Fatal Accidents In All Plants In County In Year

(Special To The News)
CHICAGO, Ill., June 20.—A new record for safety was made last year in the cement industry of the country when the total number of accidents in cement plants was held to 141. Of these only six were fatal.

The progress of the safety campaign conducted by the Portland Cement Association is shown by a comparison of averages based on hours of operation and number of men employed. In 1927 the 1339 lost time accidents showed an average of 1.426 for each 100,000 man hours of employment. This average has decreased steadily each year until in 1932 the average for the 133 accidents was .459 for each 100,000 man hours. The 1931 average had been .517.

The average of fatal accidents has declined from .0319 for each 100,000 man hours of operation in 1927 to .0204 in 1932.

This record is regarded by safety experts as remarkable in view of general industrial conditions. Intermittent operation and part-time employment is generally regarded as tending to increase accident hazard.

"We regard the 1932 record as truly remarkable," declared A. J. R. Curtis, assistant to the general manager of the Portland Cement Association who has charge of the safety work. "It was brought about only because plant officials, foremen and the workmen themselves exercised increased care in all their operations with the massive machinery and superheated kilns of the mills as well as in the hazards of the quarries."

Burgess Irked By Swimming Hordes

Bathers At Three Monongahela River Beaches Must Live Up To Orders

(International News Service)
CHARLOTTE, Pa., June 20.—Irritated by complaints of residents, Burgess J. C. Province, of Speers, near here issued order regulating conduct of bathers at three Monongahela river beaches. The order read:

"Stay on beach. No wandering off here or there in bathing suits. No auto cruising in suits. This is not Atlantic City."

In commenting on his order, the Burgess said:

"Midnight bathing must stop, too."

Tall grass in the vicinity of the beaches was ordered cut by the Burgess in issuing the mandate.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO PLAY LIKE TILDEN!

● "BIG BILL" TILDEN in a characteristic pose as he makes one of those thrilling returns which have so often spelled "point... game... set... MATCH!"

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

BILL TILDEN says: "Tournament play in tennis imposes a terrific strain upon the nervous system. Healthy nerves are essential if a player is going to be successful in maintaining his speed, endurance, and the psychology of victory. As a steady smoker, I find that cigarettes vary a lot in their effect upon the nerves. I have tried all the other popular brands, but for years I have smoked Camels. Because of their extraordinary mildness I know that I can smoke Camels as freely as I wish and still have healthy nerves."

Steady smokers turn to Camels because the costlier tobaccos in Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves.

Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself. It is more fun to know.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. You will find Camels rich in flavor and delightfully mild.

LITTLE FOLKS PARTY IN WAMPUM GARDEN

Among the lovely garden parties being held this week, one that will long be remembered by the little folks was that in the beautiful garden of Mrs. Ira McBride at Wampum, when she entertained the beginners' department of the First Methodist church.

A miniature table had been erected in the garden and over this a canopy was stretched and from the canopy hung summer flowers, giving a most festive air to the event.

The children were entertained with games and a treasure hunt, which was won by Lois Ann Davis, and after the play period they marched one by one under the canopy and found their places at the table and enjoyed a cooling lunch, with Mary Theresa Sheridan and June McBride serving.

Dorothy Jean Anderson was given a New Testament for making a book from her Sunday school papers.

Those who aided in the party were Dorothy Jean Anderson, Mae Woods, Mary Louise Mike, Lois Ann Davis, Evelyn Roberts and June McBride. Mary Theresa Sheridan of Youngstown, O., was a special guest, as was Mrs. Frank Allen of Wampum.

Lend-A-Hand Class Event

A most enjoyable outing was held Wednesday by members of the Lend-A-Hand class of the Central Presbyterian church, taught by Mrs. Belva Wilson, when they went to Cascade Park for a 6 o'clock dinner.

Those who participated included Marian Kennedy of Youngstown, O., and Gladys Erwin, special guests, and the following members: Helen Haines, Ruth Forrest, Mrs. Lucille Davies, Mildred Rodgers, Garnet Mayberry, Eleanor Winters, Ruby Artz, Marie Haering, Mrs. Ethel Pierce, Mrs. Lois Rischel and Dorothy Kennedy.

1923 S. L. Club Meets

Mrs. Dennis Donegan of Leisure avenue entertained at the regular meeting of the 1923 S. L. Club on Wednesday. The meeting was formed the pastime, and novel awards were made to Mrs. J. A. Malloy and Mrs. Thomas Valley for holding honor scores.

The hostess was assisted in serving cooling refreshments by her daughter, Ethel Margaret Donegan, at the close of the event.

Davidson Reunion Planned

The 37th annual reunion of the Davidson families will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Marshall, Main street, Wampum, on Tuesday, July 4.

The various committees are as follows: table—Mrs. Jennie Jones, Mrs. Harold W. Marshall, Mrs. Joseph McIlvenny and Mrs. Carl Davidson; sports, Mrs. Mabel Springer, William Davidson, Mrs. Margaret Dahl, John Marshall; historian, Mrs. Laura Witherspoon.

Ace-Hi Bridge Club

Install Officers.
The members of the Guild of the Epworth Methodist church met on Tuesday afternoon in the church for the monthly session and at this time the officers were installed for the ensuing year.

Mrs. V. O. Potter was inducted as president; Mrs. James Clements and Mrs. E. O. Alexander, vice presidents; Miss Edna Weide, secretary, and Mrs. C. F. Flannery, treasurer.

The Williams street unit will take charge of the nursery for July and during the month of August the Chestnut street unit will be in charge.

Phalanx Frat Holds Ladies' Night Event

Members of the Phalanx fraternity and their lady friends motored to Leesburg last night to enjoy an outing at a nearby pleasure park. Swimming comprised the chief diversion of the evening.

At a late hour a picnic lunch was served about a bonfire by a committee of which Chris Clark was chairman.

The fraternity plans to meet on Wednesday, July 5 for a meeting at the Y. M. C. A., following which a swim in a local pool will be enjoyed.

thundering herd about to swing into a gallop."

A current controversy over the propriety of giving the name of the President's craft as "the Amberjack II" is subject of a discussion by the PROVIDENCE JOURNAL, and that paper concludes: "The truth is that the inclusion of 'the' in giving the name of a vessel imparts an impersonal and institutional quality to the designation that is appropriate. We agree that the growing custom of recent years in yachting circles of referring to a yacht without the 'the' as an intimation that there is something more personal about a yacht than about a merchant ship or a naval vessel in unwarranted. Neither side of the controversy, however, can claim arbitrary authority. As far as we know, it is entirely correct to refer to the yacht either as 'Amberjack II' or as 'the Amberjack II.' Both forms enjoy abundant usage and it is usage that makes the language."

annual Fourth of July attack. Thanks to the wisdom of the majority of City Fathers, ordinances forbid the sale of dangerous explosives within the community's limits. This protective legislation plus the more exciting automobile excursion has undoubtedly saved many children from accidents which might lead to tetanus. Nevertheless, there are even yet a sufficient number of parents who, under the spell of patriot fervor and the pleadings of their progeny, purchase explosives along the highway, to justify a warning at "Tetanus, commonly known as lock jaw, no longer stages an anti-time," states Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health.

"In 1908 nearly two hundred persons, the majority of whom were children, were tetanus victims in Pennsylvania. Last year the number reached but sixty for the twelve month period, and only ten of these deaths occurred during the period which possibly could be connected with the Fourth of July. However, one death from this dread disease is even too big a price to pay for celebrating the country's Natal Day. It, therefore, might be well for mothers and fathers to err on the side of safety where giant fire crackers, toy cannons, and pistols are concerned. Even fireworks should be handled carefully and their use supervised by the older members of the family.

"However, if in spite of this precaution, an explosive accident occurs, medical advice should be sought immediately; and this, whether the powder wound appears to be in consequential or otherwise.

"Again, thoughtful persons will respect the ever increasing automobile hazard, and govern themselves accordingly. Undoubtedly a number of persons will be injured on the highways on the Fourth because of their negligence or the carelessness of the fellow fellow. Indeed, the highway accidents and fatalities that have occurred on the last few Fourth's make the automobile the real menace today. Careful driving should consequently be the rule.

"It is, of course, perfectly logical for everyone to try to extract as much fun as is possible out of the Fourth of July celebration. Pleasure and relaxation are extremely important factors in the event. But, most assuredly, commonsense and care should not be discarded in the process."

Donation Days Again Planned By Aide Ladies

Food Gifts To Be Gathered In Late October By Hospital Aide

As has been the custom every year since the building of the Jameson Memorial hospital, two "Food Donation Days" will be conducted by the Jameson Hospital Aide Society, according to announcement this morning.

Dates have not definitely been set as yet, but in all probability will be in late October as in former years. Committees will be appointed to take charge of gathering the donations together. A downtown store-room will be secured as a receiving place.

New Castle and Lawrence county housewives who are canning fruits and vegetables at the present time, are asked to lay aside a few jars as gifts to their own humanitarian institution, the Jameson Memorial Hospital. Past experience has shown these food gifts to be greatly appreciated by the hospital patients and to help materially in the maintenance of the hospital during the winter months.

Many Original Costumes At "Newspaper Party" At Y. W. C. A. Camp

Mary Otterdinger, dressed as Little Red Riding Hood, was awarded the prize for having the most original costume at the "newspaper party" at Camp East Brook of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday night.

Miss Marguerite White and Margaret Fischer were the judges. The girls were gowning in newspaper dresses which they made for themselves. The grand parade was conducted outdoors.

Editor Lois Brenneman of the camp newspaper read the news around the campfire. This was followed by the serving of chocolate milk and crackers. Tonight will bring the presentation of volunteer stunts by the campers, and promises to be most interesting. Parents will be guests tomorrow night and may come for supper if they make reservations by calling the Y. W. C. A.

Charles O'Brien of the city streets department today said employees of the department were cutting weeds in the third ward. There are several places where weeds can be cut down. Owners of unused lots should cut down weeds if only for appearance.

One man advanced the idea today that "inasmuch as people combine to oil streets why wouldn't it be a good idea to organize a weed cutting project along the same plans." The only cost would be a few beads of perspiration.

burgh division at Pittsburgh. He comes here from that city on Saturday.

Division Engineer J. S. Gillum of the E. & A., the announcement said, will become division engineer of the Ft. Wayne division with headquarters in Ft. Wayne, Ind. His promotion also takes effect Saturday, but his successor is not yet known.

Described as one of the most sweeping official changes in the history of the Pennsylvania railroad, the system promotions touched many former officers of the E. & A. Frushour, Appleton Move.

Superintendent H. T. Frushour, of the Logansport, Ind., division, Mr. West's predecessor here, will return to Pittsburgh as superintendent of the Eastern division, while at Cleveland, where General Superintendent J. A. Appleton of the Lake Grand division has served for several years, Mr. Appleton leaves for Harrisburg to take over the general superintendency of the Eastern Pennsylvania Grand division. Appleton was once an E. & A. superintendent.

Mr. Appleton will be succeeded by F. L. Dobson, superintendent of the Philadelphia Terminal division at Philadelphia.

At Cleveland the superintendency of the Cleveland division is reestablished, with Theodore Crick, trainmaster of the Panhandle division, Pittsburgh, appointed to the post.

Other promotions are expected to be announced later.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

HUNDRED FIFTY ATTEND PICNIC

Presbyterian Sunday School Has Joyous Day At Petersburg Park

A few more than 150 young people of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian Sunday school gathered at Petersburg park, eleven miles from here, Wednesday afternoon and evening, and enjoyed one of the merriest picnics of many a year.

The annual event got underway at two o'clock in the afternoon and received momentum by a series of contests, mulligan games, races, horse shoe pitching, treasure hunts and swimming. By the time six o'clock arrived, appetites were keyed to a dangerous balance and if the dinner had not been served then and there, the grass on the ground and little boys' ears would have been as unsafe as a Chinaman in Japan.

Dinner was delicious from chicken to olives. The park served as a perfect background, with its pretty maple and oak trees towering overhead. It was not the first time the Presbyterians from here had chosen this as their annual picnic setting. Prizes ranging from candy and suckers to false faces were awarded to the boys and girls winning the various contests.

Group Will Form Plans For School Reunion Tonight

Plans for a bigger and better Mahoning school reunion will be made at a meeting of the general committee of arrangements tonight at the home of Mrs. Robert Magill, Highland avenue. The meeting will be the first of the year and will take place at 9 o'clock.

The annual affair will take place early in August and is hoped to be the largest and best in many years. Those who are to be at tonight's meeting are: Frank Barnes, chairman, Mrs. Robert Magill, Mrs. Besse Coates Pitzer, John Louer, Robert Sheehy, Harvey Gwin, president and Ralph Wetlich, treasurer.

Picnic At Park Draws Big Crowd

Engineers' Wives Entertain Families At Annual Event Wednesday

Locomotive engineers, their wives and children met in the Cascade Park Wednesday evening and enjoyed a delicious annual picnic dinner at six o'clock.

Between fifty and seventy-five guests were there. The evening, extremely warm, was good for nothing except picnicking, but mighty good for that.

The event was an annual one sponsored by the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and, like picnics of other years, was enjoyable from start to the home-going time.

Sports and games furnished an interesting part of the evening. Mrs. W. B. Gillespie won three prizes, while Mrs. J. H. McOwen, L. F.

Henry, Mrs. S. F. Turk, Miss Mae Turk, Miss Louise Price, each were awarded one prize.

Out-to-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. L. DeRoss, of near New Middlesex, and Mrs. L. F. Kelley, of Youngstown, Ohio.

Dinner arrangements had been in charge of Mrs. J. H. McIlvenny and her committee, while Mrs. C. F. Perrine and committee were in charge of the sports.

This event closes G. I. A. activities until the second Thursday in September.

LOCAL COUPLE MARRIED AT BENTON, ARKANSAS

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Addie Evans of Hot Springs, Arkansas to T. D. Smith, of East Cherry street, on June 10.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Caraway at Benton, Arkansas. Returning here on Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Smith are making their home at 102 1/2 East Cherry street. Mrs. Smith is a former resident of West Madison avenue.

HAVE NO MEETING

The members of Penna-Bo auxiliary to the B. of L. F. and E., dispersed with their meeting at the city building on Wednesday afternoon. They decided to meet, however, on Wednesday afternoon, July 12.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. Nick Rainey, of 9 Darlington avenue, attended a picnic recently in Edenburg.

Angelo Rainey, of 9 Darlington avenue, is spending a few weeks in Edenburg with his sister, Mrs. James Lombardo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burdge, North Cedar street, and grandson, Robert Stewart, Jr., of North Liberty street, have returned home after several weeks in Chicago.

Matilda and Alma Rainey, of 9 Darlington avenue, will be leaving soon to spend a few weeks in Chicago, Ill., to see the World's Fair and to visit their aunt.

Chairmen Are Named For Event

Lincoln-Garfield Club Plans For Annual Outing Are Being Completed

Chairmen of the various activities of the fourth annual outing of the Lincoln-Garfield club, which will be held at Cascade Park, Saturday July 8 have been named and they have their various committees functioning to make the event, a decided success.

The chairmen announced today are—Ed D. Pritchard, general chairman, reception—Joshua T. Morgan; sports—Joseph H. Hartland; park arrangements—Joseph D. Alexander and Joseph H. Hartland.

Robert Blum Lodge Elects Officers

New Officers Will Be Installed
At The Next Regular Meeting Of Lodge

Semi-annual election of officers of Robert Blum lodge No. 466, Knights of Pythias, was held at the regular meeting this week. There was a good attendance of the members.

The officers elected were: Chancellor commander, C. C. Comstock;

vice chancellor, L. L. Maxwell; prelate, Hiram W. Houk; master of work, A. B. Fauzey; keeper of records and seals, William C. Hess; master of finance, R. F. Maxwell; master of exchange, C. E. The new officers will be installed at the next regular meeting.

Y Seeks Books For Camp Rentz Library

Association Hopes Friends Will Donate Boys' Volumes
This Summer

One thing above all is being sought by the city's Y. M. C. A.—that's boys' books.

Anxious to collect enough interesting volumes to furnish material for the first party of campers which goes to Camp Fred Rentz early in July, Physical Director Henry T. MacNicholas has asked the public to donate any books which would be of no further value to their owners.

A camp counselor will maintain a systematic camp in the library in the Katy Dill lodge this season, it is said.

Should anyone care to donate any volume of interest to boys between 10 and 16 years of age, call 215 and the Y will call for the donations.

SIXTY LIKELY WILL BE HELD IN VICE PROBE

Prominent Delaware County
Political Leaders And Police Officers Named

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—At least 60 indictments, naming prominent Delaware county political leaders, petty police officers and racketeers of various descriptions will be returned today before Judge George A. Welsh in United States court by the federal grand jury which for 12 days has been investigating vice, liquor and gambling conditions in the county.

After presenting the indictments, the jury will recess over the fourth of July holiday and return later to continue the probe under the direction of Special Assistant United States Attorney General Onet A. Keyes.

Powerful Protection.

Many of the important witnesses who appeared before the jury were closely associated at one time or another with the Republican organization of State Senator John J. McClure of Delaware county. Others were known gangsters, beer and liquor runners, speakeasy proprietors, disorderly house operators and a host of minor officials now serving prison terms for extortion and graft.

These witnesses were reported to have painted for the jury a picture of a powerful political protection ring which systematically levied tribute for the guard it threw over liquor-running, bootlegging, dope smuggling and peddling, white slave operations, and various other crimes which Keyes said constitute state offenses.

Lion Golfers Hold Handicap Tourney

New Ratings To Be Assigned As Result Of Scores Of Yesterday

For the purpose of establishing handicaps for the golfing members of the club, the Lions Club held a Handicap Golf Course Wednesday night. The result of the tournament will be a readjustment of what the players claimed for handicaps, as some of them turned in net scores that sound like Gene Sarazen on a good day.

Jess Gibson registered the only complaint of the tournament. His complaint is that he doesn't mind a couple of bad holes but figures he is entitled to more than one good one on a round. The gross and net scores of the Lion golfers follow:

Motor Inspection Starts On July 1

New State Inspection Sticker To Be Green With Black Letters

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 29.—The second compulsory motor vehicle inspection period for this year begins on July 1. Motorists will have until September 30 to comply with the state law requiring a semi-annual official inspection of all vehicles registered in this state.

The official stickers for the second period will be green, bearing the coat-of-arms of the commonwealth and black letters and numerals.

Defective equipment caused 233 accidents in May, the motor vehicle division of safety reported. Seven persons were killed and 227 injured. Property damage aggregated $33,400.

Spare her this—*

Give her a cool kitchen, lighten her cleaning tasks, free her for hours of outdoor fun. Install an electric range. We'll help you fit it into your budget.

PERHAPS there can't be a regular vacation for your wife this year. But you can make her summer at home a pleasant one.

You can cut down the heat in her kitchen considerably. You can relieve her of much hard scouring. You can get her out of the kitchen for long afternoons of play or rest.

And it will cost less than you think.

Down payment on an arangeissmall. Operating costs are surprisingly reasonable.

Completely insulated, the electric range is cool. No current of air flows through the oven to carry heat into the room. It's clean. No blackened pots or pans to scour. And it has an easy-to-operate automatic control. The oven turns itself on, maintains the right temperature, turns itself off when dinner is cooked.

Other advantages, too. Speed, for example. Oven reaches baking temperature in 10 minutes. And food economy. Roasts shrink very little. Food flavors are wonderfully improved. Because electric cookery is practically waterless, meats retain their juices, vegetables their natural salts and minerals. They're not only tasty but more healthful.

Come in, you and your wife. Let us give you a demonstration. And the figures on actual operating costs in your own neighborhood.

RAMSEY'S Liquid Asbestos Roof Coating

A Solution To Your Roof Problems

Prepared Roofings dry out after lengthy Service, lose their water-proofing material. RAMSEY'S Liquid Asbestos Coating will give them new life.

More Than a Paint—A Heavy, Ever-Elastic and Serviceable Roofing in Itself

Made of Finest Asphalt and Fibred Asbestos

Will not dry out. Cold never causes it to check. Sun-heat fails to make it run. Expansion and contraction of the material it covers do not separate it. Years it retains elasticity and weather-proofing qualities. Why? Because it is made of asphalt without a trace of coal tar or any other of the cheaper substitutes which enter the composition of less efficient coatings. Then, as a bonding material for this quality coating, only the fibres of asbestos are used.

Trinity Parish Picnic Proves Unusual Success

Several Hundred People Participate In Annual Event At Cascade Park

Trinity Episcopal Parish and church school picnic held Wednesday afternoon and evening at Cascade Park was a very successful event, being attended by approximately three hundred people.

It started in the early afternoon and the entertainment for the afternoon included various sports events for the children, also games and a baseball contest for the men. Swimming in the pool was also a feature of the afternoon.

Many tables were in use by the members of the parish and church school when all sat down to the picnic supper in the grove. Rev. Philip C. Pearson, the pastor, invoked the blessing.

During the dinner, the boy scouts and members of the committee under the supervision of T. Gwin Lewis, the general chairman of the successful event, kept the picnicers supplied with lemonade, coffee and ice cream, which was furnished by the Men's Club of the church.

After the supper, the winners of the sports events were awarded their prizes. The smaller children were also taken for a ride on the merry-go-round.

The fun of the early evening was a tug-of-war between two teams of men. The teams consisted of Chas. Adams, E. K. Bell, S. C. Moran, Gwin Lewis, William Kirk, Lynn Irwin, Leslie Brindle, James Moorehead, Charles Kelley, Ed Schlosberg, P. C. Pearson, Jr., and Myron Howe versus Jay Adams, William B. Howe, Alfred Walker, Robert McDonald, Francis S. Sowers, John Hope, William Eroe, Jr., William Walker, Lloyd Burkle, Howard F. Meehan, Albert Walker, William T. Butz, acted as judge. After the rope had broken under the strain twice and precipitated the teams in the dust and then each side had pulled the other over the line one time, it was declared a draw.

The winners of the various sports events were as follows: Fifty yard dash for boys under six—Junior Hilton; 75 yard dash for boys under 10—Ted Metzler; 75 yard dash for girls under ten—Norrine Joyce; 100 yard dash for boys under fifteen—Russell Garner; 100 yard dash for girls under fifteen—Ruth Metzler; 100 yard dash for young men over fifteen—Ed Schlosberg; three legged race for boys Lloyd Burkle and Charles Kelley; three legged race for girls—Dorothy and Ruth Metzler; wheelbarrow race for boys—Paul Burkle and Ed Schlosberg; Russell Garner and Frank Robinson; Balloon bust for girls—Jane Rice; Broncho busting event for two boys, one over ten and one under ten—Teddy Metzler and Charles Kelley; relay race for four boys—6, 10, 15 and one over 15—Frank Robinson, Russell Garner, Frank Rice and Jack Crombie; relay race for girls—6, 10, 15 and one over 15—Ruth Metzler, Betty Jones, Norrine Joyce and Norma Joyce; mousball throwing contest for women—Mrs. Lynn Irwin; baseball throw for a boy under six—Junior Hilton; Needle threading contest—Kathryn Adams and Alfred Walker.

Man Suicides At Belle Vernon, Pa.

Burns Insurance Policy And Deed To Home Then Commits Suicide

(International News Service) FAYETTE CITY, Pa., June 28.—After burning a $5,000 insurance policy and the deed to his home following a quarrel with his family, Samuel DeRosa, 40, of Belle Vernon, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head on Tremont Mine road near here.

Fayette county detectives, after an investigation, pronounced the man's death premeditated suicide in a report to Coroner S. A. Balz.

DeRosa shot himself twice, the first bullet merely grazing his chin. The second entered his ear and pierced his brain.

Members of his family said he had threatened to shoot himself last night during a quarrel. The nature of which was not learned.

Following the argument, DeRosa burned the insurance policy, the deed and other personal effects and went to bed. He arose early today and walked to the spot where he killed himself.

Brodbeck Seeks County Nomination

Announces His Candidacy For County Register And Recorder

J. RUSSELL BRODBECK

J. Russell Brodbeck today announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of Register and Recorder of Lawrence County.

Mr. Brodbeck resides on property owned by him in North Beaver Township where, during his life time, he has always taken an active interest in matters of public concern, and is raising a family of two girls and two boys. The confidence of those who know him is reflected in the fact that for thirteen years he has served his community well in the office of Justice of Peace.

Prior to the reduction in employment by his employer, because of the depression, for more than twenty-two years he was employed as Chief Clerk and Factory Cost Accountant by the Shaw-Perkins Manufacturing Co. and its predecessors (known as the Radiator Works) at West Pittsburgh, Taylor Township. He has never before been a candidate for any elective county office.

In making his announcement, Mr. Brodbeck said: "My entire business life has been devoted to the accurate making and preservation of records. I recognize that the accurate making and preservation of records in the office of the Register and Recorder is the guarantee to the citizens of this county of vast property rights."

"I also recognize the fact that among other duties the Register and Recorder is the agent of the Commonwealth for the computation and collection of inheritance taxes. In the performance of this duty my experience as an accountant will be a valuable asset."

"I further recognize that it is the duty of the Register and Recorder to administer the office with the least number of employees consistent with efficiency and economy, and pledge myself to this policy."

"Courtesy to the attorneys and citizens having business to transact with the office and in the office is of supreme importance, and I pledge myself to this policy."

"I respectfully solicit your vote and influence."

Advise Campaign Against Ragweed

Will Reduce Autumn Hay Fever Government Specialists Assert

Campaigns to eradicate ragweed from towns and cities and outlying regions can decrease the danger of hay fever from that source, Leaflet 95L, How to Control Ragweed, the Principal Cause of Autumn Hay Fever, just issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, says.

The Public Health Service, which has approved the suggestions in the publication, estimates that of the two types of hay fever, spring and autumn, 65 percent of the cases are in the fall and 90 percent of these cases east of the Mississippi river are caused by ragweed.

At the same time the Department advises goldenrod of much of the usual blame for hay fever. Goldenrod pollen is carried about by insects, and does not float in the air like ragweed and other hay fever pollens.

The leaflet describes the two types of ragweed, the common and the big, which are chiefly responsible for autumn hay fever. Although the Department realizes that eradication of the weed in country districts is difficult, it gives directions for such work and calls attention to the need for cutting the weeds along highways and on vacant lots in cities and towns.

Eradication campaigns by civic groups will decrease the quantity of ragweed pollen in the air sufficient to keep persons only slightly subject to the fever from contracting it. This will lessen the severity of the disease for those more subject to it.

Ragweed should be cut twice a year, the leaflet says, the first time before it flowers and again before flowers develop on the low-growing branches which appear after the first cutting.

Police Plan To Start Practice

Will Start Target Shooting To Improve Marksmanship In Near Future

Arrangements are now being completed by which the members of the city police force will practice target shooting to improve their marksmanship. Special targets are being constructed for the use of the officers. The place at which this practice will be held has not as yet been determined.

G. O. P. Leaders Meet In State

To Gather Today At Selinsgrove To Make Party Plans

VARE WILL BE ON COMMITTEE

By WILLIAM J. KELLY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SELINGROVE, Pa., June 29 — Looking toward a renewal of the Republican grip on Pennsylvania's political life, leaders of the state's dominant party rallied here today for preliminaries of the annual reorganization campaign.

Tribute to William S. Vare, Philadelphia leader, through his election as national committeeman was prearranged. Mail ballots assured his election as the successor of the late Jay Cooke of Philadelphia. State leaders claimed opposition to him would be negligible.

While Vare's personal appearance with a large Quaker City delegation and his selection to the national post stood out on the day's program the gathering was expected to bring out other significant developments in the state's political picture.

More than 5,000 persons were expected to crowd Rolling Green park for the joint rally of the state Republican and the young Republican committees. Vare's election was set for the morning meeting of the state group.

Deep political interest was attached to the scheduled afternoon addresses of U. S. Senator Davis A. Reed who will be a candidate for reelection next year; Everett Sanders, National Republican chairman, Mrs. Worthington Scranton, Pennsylvania national committeewoman and Gen. Edward Martin, state chairman.

Because of his outspoken criticism of President Roosevelt's recovery program, the Senator's address was keenly anticipated. Senator Reed will talk plain turkey about the national administration," he said before the meeting.

The rally had extensive political ramifications. Many regarded it as the vehicle by which General Martin may gain Vare's support in the gubernatorial race. Others viewed it as the time and place for Republicans to lay the groundwork for municipal elections this fall and state-wide elections next year.

Four Negroes Caught Here In Stolen Automobile

Claimed To Have Had Permission Of The Owner Of The Machine

Four Negroes, Long Grice, Howard Dickson, Monroe Hampton and James Bell, all of Youngstown, O., were arrested here on suspicion early this morning at Moravia street and Long avenue by the police.

They were unable to show an owners or drivers license card and the claim of Grice that he had permission of his employer, a man named Goldberg to use the machine, did not sound good to the police.

Inquiry of the Youngstown authorities in regard to the matter developed the fact that the owner, Abe Goldberg of Youngstown, stated that the machine had been stolen. The authorities here were asked to retain the four men for the police in that city and were turned over to them this afternoon.

City To Receive $10,000 From Beer

License Payments To Come To City — To Use Money For Improvements

City of New Castle will realize more than $10,000 from the beer business in the city, according to a statement made by Solicitor Robert White today.

The money will be turned over to the city by Lawrence County Treasurer William Pitts in the near future, it is expected.

Inspector of the legal bureau Henry Dwyer informed White this morning he had made a check of persons who had received distribution and retail licenses.

Distributors paid $75.00, and retailers $150.00. The money will be appropriated by ordinance to city improvements, it is reported.

Girl Scout Camp Committee Makes "Day Camp" Plans

Girl Scouts Unable To Attend Regular Camp, To Enjoy "Day Camp"

A decision to conduct "day camp" for Girl Scouts of New Castle who are unable to spend a week or two weeks at Camp Phillips this summer, was made by the camp committee at a meeting Wednesday held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. W. E. Hanger, East Wallace avenue.

Members of the committee, Mrs. John Higgins, Mrs. Albert Treser, Mrs. Ray Robinson, and Miss Helen Wilson, were in favor of conducting a regular camp schedule from the hours of 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at Cascade Park on August 16, 17, 18 and 19.

Cascade Park was chosen because of its accessibility. The regular camp program will be carried out, exactly as it is at Camp Phillips. Mrs. Sidney Smith will be director. Working with her will be a corps of experienced counselors chosen from the ranks of the New Castle troop leaders.

"Day camp" is being planned because the camp committee is anxious to bring camp life to all Girl Scouts of the city, regardless of whether or not they were able to be present at the regular summer camp period. Ellwood City has a day camp in progress at the present time. New Castle had one such day last summer and found it to be very successful, although it was conducted at Camp Phillips and was not so easily reached by some of the girls as Cascade Park will be.

One meal will be served each day, at noon time, for which a fee of ten cents per person will be charged. Cooking will be done by the girls, under supervision of the counselors. Girl Scouts may attend one, two or all four of the day camp programs, as they so desire. No registration is required.

Tax Payers Kick On Road Millage

Hearing Before Judge Hildebrand Today On Petition From Mahoning Township

Taxpayers of Mahoning township are dissatisfied with a road tax levy of seven mills for the present year. Constable William J. Edward, representing the taxpayers league of that township, has presented a petition to court asking that the millage be reduced. Hearing is in progress before Judge R. L. Hildebrand today.

The petitioners set forth that the state has taken over 50 miles of road in the township, leaving only 37 miles for the road supervisors to keep up. However, the tax levy has not been reduced. It is claimed that with less than half the amount of roads to be kept up by the township, there ought to be a corresponding decrease in the tax rate.

Road Supervisors Milo Paden, John A. Gibson and Joseph Kuhn have been supplied with workers from the relief rolls during the past year, there being 240 families on relief. Most of the workers have received but small amounts outside of their relief orders.

Supervisors receive 62½ cents per hour for supervising the work. The tax levy last year amounted to $1,400. An effort is being made at the hearing to bring out exactly how the money was spent.

Big Name Hunter

Title of junior champion autograph hunter is claimed for Billy Hanley, 8, of Eoston. He's shown all tired out after waiting hours to get signature of Mrs. F. D. Ceremony at Monument to Battery Is Part Of Day's Tribute

BRAHAM MAKES
CHIEF ADDRESS

Annual observance of "Battery B Day" at Mt. Jackson under the auspices of Earl J. Watt, post No. 638, American Legion, and with the cooperation of the people of the community, which was the home of the famous Civil War outfit being honored, was most successfully carried out on Wednesday.

Several hundred interested people, descendants of the noted battery members and others, including nine Civil War veterans, were in attendance. Featuring the affair was the address of Attorney W. Walter Brahm, veteran of the World War, made during the afternoon at the exercises held in the Mt. Jackson high school auditorium.

Mt. Jackson, long known for its hospitality, outdid itself on Wednesday and the credit for the success of the occasion is due to Earl J. Watt, post, its auxiliary and the people of the district.

Program Starts.
Assembly was sounded at 10:45 at the home of the legion post in Mt. Jackson and the parade was formed with Gerald W. Kildoo, commander of Watt post, as marshal and proceeded to the Battery B monument along the Mt. Jackson road headed by the Mt. Jackson high school band directed by Prof. W. H. McCullough.

In the parade formation were many veterans of the World War, members of the legion auxiliary and the nine veterans of the Civil War, who were special guests of honor of the occasion and were escorted by the World War veterans. The honor guests were transported in cars.

At the monument of Battery B the officers of Watt Post assumed charge and conducted the ceremonies. Gerald W. Kildoo, post commander, was in direct charge. The band opened the ceremonies with "America." Ralph Spears, post chaplain, then invoked the divine blessing.

The firing squad fired three volleys, after which John Frederick, the bugler, sounded taps. The ceremonies were concluded with the playing of the Star Spangled Banner by the band.

Civil War Veterans Present.
The Civil War veterans participating were D. M. Clark of Mt. Jackson, commander of post No. 100, G. A. R.; Edward L. Ayers, Pulaski; M. H. Alexander, New Castle; John D. Patterson, Wampum; Robert H. Wilson, North Beaver township; Henderson Sharup, New Wilmington; T. B. Wilson, Wampum; John Caldwell, New Castle, and R. H. Cooper of New Wilmington.

In the parade formation John Galletto and Mike Chester acted as color bearers, while Lee Gwin and Paul Kenney were the post guards. The firing squad was in charge of Dr. F. D. Campbell, lieutenant, and had the following members: Joe Scott, Paul Lago, Roy Robb, Clare Carr, Charles Albright and William Zech.

After the ceremony at the monument, the parade reformed and returned to Mt. Jackson, where a sumptuous basket picnic dinner was served to nearly 300 people by the ladies' auxiliary of the post and assisting ladies of the community in the post hall. The tables were beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers.

At 2 p. m. E. S. T. the program of the afternoon got under way in the high school auditorium. The program opened with an overture by the Mt. Jackson high school band, directed by Prof. W. H. McCullough. America was then sung by the audience and Rev. Robert Hamill, pastor of the Mt. Jackson U. P. church, pronounced the invocation. The band then rendered another selection.

Brahm Speaks.
Post Commander G. W. Kildoo introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Attorney W. Walter Brahm, with appropriate remarks.

The address of Attorney Brahm was most appropriate and took into consideration the question of all the wars of the country in more recent years. The speaker stressed what had been accomplished in them, not as an achievement but with regard to their value today. He particularly stressed what these wars meant to the present day generation as regards to conditions here as compared with other countries of the world, especially as regards the freedom of our people from war preparation.

Following the address, the band played a selection, Commander Kildoo spoke briefly, taps were sounded and Rev. Robert Hamill pronounced the benediction and the celebration was at an end.

Mt. Jackson in honor of the occasion was decorated with American flags and presented a very interesting and patriotic picture.

Guests from New Castle were transported to and from the legion home in New Castle in cars furnished by a committee of citizens of Mt. Jackson.

Chief of Police Archie Shoop and officer Frank Cekoski of Bessemer acted as motorcycle escort to the parade and also had charge of traffic during the day.

Hails Roosevelt Program Success

Noted Yale Economist Says
"Reflation Program" Got Country Out Of Rut

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, June 28.—Dr. Irving Fisher, noted Yale University economist today hailed President Roosevelt's policy of "reflation" as the solution to the economic problems that harassed the nation between 1929 and 1933.

Addressing the econometric society meeting at an affiliate of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Prof. Fisher stated that in the mad rush to reduce its debts during the last three years the American public actually increased its burden. He added: "If the remedy for the situation was sought in further liquidation, the depression could not end until bankruptcy and unemployment had become well near universal."

President Roosevelt, he pointed out, had adopted the better and toyequicker way out: namely, reflation.

Mahoning Grange
Plans For Picnic

Committee Appointed To Make Arrangements—Other
News Of Grange

Mahoning Valley Grange met Tuesday evening with the master, Fred Knoll, in the chair.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual picnic. It is as follows: William Robison, Francis Jacobson and Merle Cover. It will work with the social committee, which consists of Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. C. C. Stump and M. L. Alley. The committee appointed is to select place and dates.

Miss Elma Robinson, who had been chosen by Pomona Master W. S. Fullerton to represent the young people of the Mahoning Valley Grange at a meeting held recently, announced that the first of a series of meetings will be held at Mahoning Valley Grange on July 11, the young people being the hosts. New Bedford and New Wilmington grange young people will furnish the program. The committee which was appointed is comprised of Helen Jane Martin, Grace Kelson, Mary Alice McClenahan.

A report was made by Edna M. Robison, member of the 4-H club sewing class, that the young girls are progressing very nicely in their work. The program was an "Old Time School" with Helen Jane Martin in charge. A number of songs were rendered. The discussion on "Muscle Shoals" was in charge of Mrs. Jane Walters. The stage and auditorium committee was commended for the improvements it had made.

On this committee are Mrs. Edith Robinson, Mrs. Jane Walters, Edna Munn, with Elma Robinson and Fred Knoll substituted for the third member.

The grange is arranging a membership contest with captains being chosen in the near future. George Kuhn has been selected as degree master.

Wilda Simon has improved and is able to be out.

Mrs. Effie Hink, who was ill with a cold, has improved.

Muri Simon is ill at present.

Dale McClenahan is visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClenahan at New Bedford.

Wears Lovely Dresses
Now Since Losing
49 Pounds of Fat

Get That Youthful Feeling Of Spirited Activity—That Glorious Kruschen Feeling

A roly-poly, overweight woman can't possibly wear the new flattering styles—besides the best bargains and most charming dresses come in the smaller sizes.

So get busy, girls, with Kruschen Salts—get rid of double chins, chunky legs and ugly bulging rolls of fat above the corset line—without starving and without loss of strength or pep.

As a matter of fact when you faithfully take your little daily dose of Kruschen first thing every morning in a glass of hot water, you gain in physical charm (skin clears, eyes grow bright) all while you're achieving your goal—a youthful, slender figure. Attention to diet will help—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter and cream.

Mrs. Di Salvo of Woodhaven, L. I., writes: "Only a few months ago I weighed 187 and never could get a nice dress to fit. Now from a 44 dress to a size 20—weight, 138. Many thanks to Kruschen. I've recommended it to all my friends."

A jar of Kruschen that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at Eckerd's Drug Store, New Castle Drug Co. or any drugstore the world over. Money back if not joyfully satisfied with results. But for your health's sake—make sure you get Kruschen—it's the SAFE way to reduce—prescribed by physicians.

Two Cent Local Postage
In Effect On Saturday

To be or not to be may have once been the great question, but to use a two-cent or three-cent postage stamp on your letters promises to baffle local mailers equally as much beginning with Saturday.

July 1 is the first date Postmaster General James A. Farley decreed that "local" letters could travel in the mails at the old two-cent rate, while mail not local would require the customary three-cent stamp.

Postmaster Lake S. MacNab, thoughtful of the mailing public, pronounced this simple formula today to help clarify things:

"Commencing Saturday a two-cent stamp will be sufficient for letters deposited in the local post office or any New Castle street letter box, or in the seventh ward post office or boxes, if that letter is intended for delivery at some New Castle address or at some home along any of the rural mail routes which the local office serves."

No R. F. D. route extends to Bessemer, to New Wilmington, to Hillsville, so naturally a three-cent stamp must be used. A two-cent will not carry a letter to any neighboring county town where a post office exists. Neither will they carry them to Pittsburgh or New York by any means.

Reports from New York say that confusion has arisen over the exact meaning of the term "local," and difficulty may be encountered for the first few days. However, in this community the "local" term is not so hard to apply.

Postmaster MacNab stressed the fact that delay and inconvenience will result from hasty and negligent mailing. Parties who are to receive the mail must pay postage shortages when they are found.

Margaret Henry Presented Pin

Superintendent Of Children's Home Is Honored By Group
Of W. B. A. Women

A group of the pioneer members of Review 98 of the Women's Benefit Association visited the Margaret Henry Home Wednesday evening and Mrs. Tillie Hartman president of the pioneers, presented Miss Margaret Henry with an orchid quilt, the color being that of the pioneers, and Miss Henry responded in a very gracious manner.

Miss Anna Patterson then presented Miss Henry with a "pioneer" pin as she has been a member of the W. B. A. for more than twenty-five years; Mrs. Maude Neff then presented Miss Henry with a gift.

The women were invited to go through the home and the hospital and after this inspection was made they were invited to seats on the lawn and a program was given by the children, under the direction of Mrs. Lida Green.

After a parade by the children Bobby Williams gave a reading; eight girls gave a playlet "Little Orphan Annie" with the part of "Sandy" the dog, taken by "Shep" the pet dog of the home; Annabelle Williams took the part of Annie; six boys of the Home sang; Henry Carline gave a reading; four of the girls had an acrobatic stunt; eight of the boys gave a drill; twelve of the girls had a "doll baby" parade and the entire group, sang "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver," "We All Pull Together," and "Little Brown Brother"; two of the girls had a dance and Mrs. Lida Green sang "Mother Machree."

Miss Henry thanked the women for their interest in the home and extended them an invitation to the annual reception day on July 19.

The visitors included Mrs. Tillie Hartman, Mrs. Clara Rice, Mrs. Maude Rheinhardt, Mrs. Maude Neff, Mrs. Lydia Pitzer, Mrs. Gertrude Morrison, Mrs. Hatlie Nowling, Mrs. M. Frazier, Mrs. Nell Knox and Anna Patterson.

A wonderful, patented invention...
Superlastic Cords
Conquers the Blowout Evil

25% to 30% more stretch than stiff-side tires makes ALLSTATES "give"
under strain—makes them Unblowable

UNBLOWABLE tires—the great hope of tire makers for twenty years—are now ready to protect you from accident, injury and death. This results from a great scientific discovery—the discovery that STRETCH, not strength alone, is the way to conquer blowouts.

Hence an utterly new cord was created for the ALLSTATE Tire—a Superlastic Cord—with 25% to 30% more stretch under strain. Now all ALLSTATE Tires are built this patented way.

Order the great Unblowable ALLSTATE at once, and avoid a chief cause of fatal motor accidents. Order before prices jump, and save real money.

A blowout at 35 miles per hour is very dangerous.

All Tire Prices
May Jump Again Any Day
Order Now, Save Real Money
Liberal Trade-In Allowance for your old tires on ALLSTATE and SUPER ALLSTATE Balloons

And at 45, 50, or 60 it is almost certain to hurl your car into the path of another, or plunge you into the ditch with tragic results.

And watch out! Blowouts occur in many tires on which the tread looks sound. For 95% of the ordinary blowouts come—not through the tread where wear is greatest, but through the sides—the "Blowout Zone."

This is due to the great strain put on cords at the flexing point—the zone where a tire hinges up and down. Cords that lack in stretch soon weaken and fray.

When you least expect it, BANG!—another blowout—another tragedy.

Now Superlastic Cords in Sears great ALLSTATE Tires abolish this evil—banish the "Blowout Zone"—bring America UNBLOWABLE Tires.

And they're doubly protected under the tread by a most amazing development—Sears Intra-woven Shock Breaker—20% stronger than 2 average under-tread plies or breaker strips.

To prove these achievements, we ran ALLSTATES side by side with other leading tires for six million miles—wore out fleets of cars. And NOT ONE ALLSTATE blew out!

Moreover, these marvelous Unblowable balloons ran 13.8% to 57.1% more miles than others, before worn out!

No Extra Price

You would pay a premium for the long-distance Unblowable ALLSTATE. Yet, you pay less. For ALLSTATE tires are first in national retail sales. This great volume lets us price them under all other standard makes.

Call 3,500 Miners Back To Work In Ohio Coal Fields

(International News Service)
CHARLESTON, Pa., June 29.—Unemployment along a 25-mile branch line of the Pennsylvania railroad leading into the Marianna coal fields was completely wiped out by orders issued today calling 3,500 miners back to work.

The Gibson mine goes on a six-day week for the Hillman Coal and Coke Company at Ellsworth; Marianna mines of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation were ordered to five-day week schedules; and the Ontario mine at Cokesburg is to operate on a full day and night schedule. It is the first time since 1927 that full production schedules have been in effect.

The miners going back to work have been on one and two-day weeks for three years.

Eleven Pennsylvania railroad crews are also affected by the order suspending unemployment along the 25 mile branch line, a controlling factor in the stability of Washington county trade.

Militia Training Camps Made Ready

State National Guards Will Pour Into Mt. Gretna And Indiantown

Work Of Preparing Camps For Thousands Of Soldiers Rushed Along

(International News Service)
MT. GRETTA, Pa., June 28.—Improvements to the Pennsylvania military reservation here and at Indiantown Gap were being rushed to completion today under the direction of Col. William Hicks, superintendent of the state military reservation, in preparation for the arrival of contingents of the 28th Division, Pennsylvania National Guard, next week.

As a result of the delay in a decision upon training this year, Colonel Hicks was compelled to augment his force of men, especially in view of the numerous additional improvements which previous to the use of Indiantown Gap as a training center for artillery were not required.

Indiantown Gap, situated in Lebanon and Dauphin counties, will provide the first opportunity for the assembly of all branches and units of the guard within a reasonable distance of each other.

Advance Detail
Preparations have been made for the arrival of an advance detail of the first contingents on July 8. The advance men will assist in the final details of preparation.

The fifty-fifth infantry brigade, commanded by Gen. Edward Martin, and including the 109th and 110th infantry regiments, will arrive at Mt. Gretna July 8, with advance details of this group coming here July 2 and afterwards and remaining until the completion of the two weeks' training period. Parts of the 28th division train and the 103rd medical regiment from Philadelphia also will be among the first units to train at Mt. Gretna.

Among the first units to arrive at the Gap site will be the 109th field artillery, which will remain in camp until July 22, together with the 178th field artillery.

Paul Reward Case To Be Up July 3

Capture Of Irene Schroeder And Glenn Dague To Be Reviewed By Court

Prothonotary R. M. Campbell has placed 23 cases on the argument list for a session of court on July 3. One of the most important is that of Elmer Hogue against the County of Lawrence, in which a distribution of the $3200 reward offered for the murderers of Corporal Brady Paul is asked.

Hogue was in Phoenix, Arizona, at the time of the capture of Irene Schroeder and Glenn Dague, and from copies of The News, claims to have identified them as the persons wanted in Lawrence county for the murder of Corporal Paul.

All of the claimants to the reward have filed affidavits at the prothonotary's office, showing the part they took in the capture. They will be represented by their attorneys at the argument.

Following the arguments the court will hand down an opinion in which the basis of distribution of the reward will be set forth.

Cement Shipments Heavier In State

May Report Shows Increase Over Record For One Year Ago

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28.—Shipments of Portland cement from mills of manufacture to destinations in Pennsylvania were greater in May of this year than in May 1932, the Bureau of Mines reports.

Such shipments in May totaled 498,529 barrels. This was an encouraging increase over shipments amounting to only 450,430 in May 1932. In the country as a whole, on the other hand, cement shipments from mills were lower in May 1933 than in the corresponding month of 1932.

Only one other state outranked Pennsylvania in such cement shipments. New York led with shipments totaling 874,417 barrels.

Apple Thinning To Be Discussed

Demonstration Will Be Conducted At New Wilmington, Friday Evening

Thinning of apples to get the most economical results will be demonstrated at a meeting to take place Friday evening at 7 o'clock, standard time, at the orchard of J. W. Cummings, of New Wilmington.

John Ruef, fruit specialist of Pennsylvania State College, will be in charge of the demonstration and will preside at a discussion which will follow. All fruit growers in the county are invited to attend this meeting, held under the auspices of the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Bureau.

Support Pledged To Recovery Plan

Oil Men Of Lawrence, Butler And Other Counties Form Organization

BUTLER, Pa., June 28.—After pledging support of oil production regulations in the Roosevelt administration's national recovery program, 300 Butler, Armstrong, and Lawrence county oilmen organized here yesterday to fight for stabilization of the industry.

Sweltering in the afternoon heat, the oil producers stayed for two hours in a packed Community building assembly room to hear leaders explain provisions in the national code of practices and to marshal forces for a drive against disastrous competition.

The Western Pennsylvania Oil Producers association and elected an executive committee to represent them in parleys with area and national directors of the Washington administration's oil code.

H. H. Phillips, Butler, was elected chairman and Carl R. Daugherty of Butler, was named secretary of the committee. T. W. Phillips, Jr. of the T. W. Phillips Gas and Oil company presided at the organization meeting as temporary chairman.

Legion Of Honor Closes For Summer

Regular Meetings Are Suspended Until September—Hold Final Meeting

Last night's meeting of the Legion of Honor was the last which will take place until September, and a number of important matters were brought up for discussion.

Plans were discussed for a picnic to be held during the summer and a committee on arrangements was appointed by Senior Vice Commander Ross Auel who presided at the meeting.

The members present voted to continue the golf matches on Monday evening, and a large number are expected to be present. There was a good crowd out last Monday in spite of the threatening weather and the record crowd of the year is looked for Monday.

A copy of the history of the organization which will be placed in the cornerstone of the new Post Office was completed.

No regular meetings will be held until the second Wednesday in September, the members voted, following the custom which has been in vogue for several years.

Bridges Need Paint But Funds Are Low

Commissioners Have Heavy Obligations To Meet On First Of July 1

County commissioners announce that there are a number of bridges in Lawrence county that will require painting this summer, but at present they do not have any funds with which to do the work. There is a bond payment due on July 1, which, with interest, and other bills to be met on that date, will use up all available cash.

Work of painting the bridges cannot be taken up until the 1935 taxes begin coming in more rapidly. So far collections have been slow. It is expected that payments will be heavier during July, which is the last month on which the five per cent discount is allowed.

Commissioners are confining bridge work at present to actual necessities, such as replanking, when floors break through.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT THE NEW GOODRICH SAFETY SILVERTOWNS! 3 TIMES SAFER FROM BLOW-OUTS AT HIGH SPEEDS

YES... I'M GETTING A SET. LIFE'S TOO SWEET TO TAKE CHANCES

BLOW-OUT PROTECTION FREE!

Safest Tire Ever Built Now 3 Times Safer from Blow-outs at NO EXTRA COST!

WHEN you push the "gas" pedal down—the temperature inside your tire goes up. The heat becomes terrific—rubber and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts—grows—grows—inside the tire, where you can't see it. Then, when you least expect it—BANG! A blow-out! The tire flattens : : drags the car from the road : : and you're headed for trouble.

An Utterly New Kind of Tire!

To protect you from such accidents, Goodrich Safety Silvertowns are now made three times safer from blow-outs by the amazing new Life-Saver Golden Ply! This remarkable invention resists internal heat—keeps rubber and fabric from separating—prevents blisters—keeps you safe by eliminating the cause of blow-outs!

In grueling tests on the world's fastest track, this new Silvertown, with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, lasted three times as long as first quality tires that did not have this feature. These SILVERTOWNS never blew—because the Life-Saver Golden Ply refused to give!

Safest Anti-Skid Tread

But that isn't all. Scientific tests with leading makes of tires prove that Goodrich Safety Silvertowns have the most skid-resistant tread on the road. Even on wet, slippery pavements, the squeeze drying action of this famous tread gives your car extra road-grip and reduces danger of skidding to a minimum.

Come in and let us show you this remarkable tire that is three times safer from blow-outs at high speeds.

Remember—this amazing protection is free. For Goodrich Safety Silvertowns cost no more than other standard tires.

Glimpses Of Nature

Useful Insects and Beetles That Serve Mankind OWEN FENFIELD FOX

There are many things in Nature's handiwork that challenge our admiration. Bird and animal life have furnished us with many hours of interesting study. But in the realm of the insect world, there is much to be learned. To most of us insects are thought of as destroyers, but to the contrary there are insects that do a wonderful work. It is to the time to familiarize ourselves with the good some insects perform. I do not wish the readers to think that I am in accord with the lesser creatures that crawl but I heartily champion the protection of useful insect life. So it is my creed to pass on to man some of my knowledge found in the insect world.

Hidden among the bushes, away from mortal eyes are many insects that are tireless workers for the human race. By June most of the insect life are active, and thus we find the little Lady bird that you see crawling about in a snail like pace on the rose leaves. The little lady comes from the many pockets that are arranged along its abdomen.

But there is another insect that is world wide useful, the Lantern fly, that wears a phosphorescent light upon its head. And when darkness closes day the lantern fly flashes tips of light much like the fire fly.

Nature turns out works that are masterpieces, and from the lowly lantern fly, comes the wax that is made into many useful articles. This substance is taken from the lantern fly's body.

It is useful to wander to a still spot in the woods, where a stream meanders on its way shaded by an overhanging tree. There you find the rove beetle a most useful scavenger collecting all destroying pests that come within reach of its long sharp knife claws. Slowly but faithfully it works doing no harm, but only good for mankind the long day through.

To crush the burying beetle beneath the heel of your boot is an act of a destroyer, for of all the clawing clan of insects there are none more valuable to man than this creeping creature. The burying beetle digs the ground of all dead reptiles, and decaying substance. The burying beetle gets its name, because of the method it uses in the way it digs around the body until all the dirt is removed this letting the corpse slowly sink into the ground. In watching the activities of the burying beetle we find that the female lays its eggs in the earth where it has buried some substance. And there the larvae from the eggs gets its nourishment from this hidden substance. The action of the burying beetle helps to keep the air free from tainted impurities.

Not all the sweet odors come from the flowers. The Creator has placed upon the earth a bug with a perfume like the rose. The Musk beetle although it is hidden among the leaves has so strong an odor that one would look for a rose bush, or brings to the mind the memory of the rose jar in an old fashioned home. The musk beetle plays a part in our lives, many of them going into the perfume making vats.

It is strange but insects have no lungs, their bodies are covered with tube like openings that breath in air that mixes with the blood which flows to all parts of the body. Insects bodies are void of skeletons but are enclosed with hard shell-like covering that acts as guards for their delicate organs.

To those who would take the time you would be repaid two fold and glean much knowledge of insects that are hidden away, and to learn of the helpful ones, and those of the destroying nature.

Mahoning A.A. To Play Tigers Thursday

Mahoning-Tigers To Clash Today

Divisional Champs Of First Half Play First Series Game

MAHONING HAS LOST ONE LEAGUE GAME

Gangway! That'll be the shout late this afternoon when fans start trekking to Lee Avenue field where the Tigers, American loop champs and the Mahoning A. A. kingspins of the National division, clash in the first of a three games series for the first half title of the Lawrence circuit. The 'umps' will shout "Play ball," at 6:30 p. m. d. s. t.

Tigers captured their title when they beat Bessemer in a play-off on Tuesday, six to four. It marked their twelfth victory in the American division. The Tigers came from behind to win in the last half of the fifth frame after Bessemer had scored four runs. Tigers scored six in the last of the fifth.

The Mahoning A. A. won the championship of their loop with a score of 10 to 9. In fact they dropped only one game, it being a tilt with Orrs. Their records shows 19 games won and one lost. National division teams played more games than American division clubs due to only four teams being in the former division.

Managers Watch Hurlers As soon as the last out was made Tuesday, Messrs. Nick Caney and Alec Black, spokesman for Manager Lou Fuller, conferred and accepted the commission's order to play the first game Thursday. The managers selected the second series game as July 2. A flip of the coin set the first game on Lee Avenue field and the second at E. and A. field, Seventh ward.

Nick said he would start either Perretti or Steve Hutnic. The former is a youngster and Steve is a veteran. Neither is credited with losing a game. Shields dropped the only game Mahoning lost. Black will probably shoot Hoffmeister to the hill as he said: "Hoffmeister can beat Mahoning six times a week."

Expect Big Crowd Of course this was rather a broad statement for "Blackie" to make without the hearing of Signor Caney who retaliated with, "Yes, he won today's game because an error was made and Nord had to retire when he tore the nail off a nigger." The argument waxed hot and there's prospects of another game today.

The crowd that jammed the West Side field is said to have been the largest to have ever attended a baseball game in this city. Estimates place the crowd at 8000. Fans crowded the lines, the nearby roads and they were several persons deep on the fringe of the outfield. Every street near the field was filled with automobiles.

D. Ross, Price And Bishop To Umpire

Pick Glitch, in charge of Lawrence league umpires assigned umpires for today's Mahoning-Tigers game, as follows: Dutch Ross at plate, Price at first base and Bishop at third base.

Heroes-Goats In Big League

(International News Service) The Hero—Heine Manush, Washington, got two hits in the first inning, a single and a homer with the bases full, as the Nats swamped Cleveland 15 to 2.

The Goat—Bill Swift, Pirates, pitched just one ball in second game on twin Bill with Giants and Gus Mancuso hit it into the right field stands to give New York a 7 to 4 victory.

Pirates Split With Giants

New York Giants Enjoy 4½ Game Lead In National League Today

BRAVES TRIM CARDS TWICE

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 28.—Instead of being one of those crucial affairs with the National League lead at stake, the five-game series between the league-leading New York Giants and second-place St. Louis Cardinals that starts here today, is something of a flop as a gate attraction due to the slump of the Cards in the east. Defeated in six of their last seven games with the Phillies and Braves, the St. Louis crew is 4½ games behind New York and must sweep the series to be in front when the race reaches the half-way mark next Tuesday.

Braves Win Two The Braves flashed some more gaudy pitching yesterday and made it three straight over the Red Birds by grabbing both ends of a double bill, 4 to 3, and 3 to 0. Thanks to Pinky Whitney's homer with one on and Buck Jordan's single in the ninth with the bases loaded, Ed Brandt outpitched Wild Bill Hallahan in the opener. In the nightcap Fred Frankhouse held the Cards to three singles.

Paul Waner's triple of Carl Hubbell gave Steve Swetonic of the Pirates a 5 to 2 win over the Giants in the first game of a double-header, but New York took the nightcap, 7 to 4, thanks to three timely homers. Ott's homer drove in two runs; Little Hughie Critz's first circuit clout of the year tied the score in the ninth and Gus Mancuso's round-tripper with two aboard broke up the game in the tenth. Mancuso's wallop was made on the first ball pitched by Bill Swift, relief pitcher.

Bridgeport Stars Bill Jurgens, Cub shortstop who got married yesterday morning, celebrated in the afternoon by wallowing six hits, including a homer, as Chicago two-timed the Phillies 9 to 5 and 8 to 3.

After being tamed by Paul Derringer 8 to 1, Brooklyn slugged Cincinnati's two patriachs, Uncle Ep Rixey and Grandpappy Jack Quinn, for a 5 to 5 win. Sluggin' Sam Leslie hit four for four and Joe Stripp's hit in the eighth broke up the game. Refreshed by two days of rest, Babe Ruth led the Yankees to a 15 to 7 triumph over Detroit. His 17th homer, a herculean wallop over the center field fence, helped tie the score in the eighth when the Yanks scored five runs, and he carried the winning run over the plate in the ninth. He had gone hitless in Detroit all season.

Indians Scalped Heinie Manush went on another batting spree, hitting four for four as the Washington steam roller crushed Cleveland 15 to 2. He singled and hit a homer in the first inning when the Nats scored nine runs. Wes Ferrell being one of the victims. Wally Stewart went the route for the winners.

Boating Youths (International News Service) FORTSMYTH, Mont.—Guy Haywood, Thomas Meredith, John Blair and Elmo Waldref, adventuresome Fortsmyth youths, recently set out on a cruise down the Yellowstone river in a home-made 19-foot scow. They expect to spend several weeks navigating and exploring.

Aid Jobless (International News Service) NEW YORK—Several New York beer gardens will share their profits with the jobless. Other beer places, shortly to start business, announced they will give 25 per cent of their first day's sales to the unemployed.

A shortage of statisticians is reported in Philadelphia. Perhaps all of them now are working for Uncle Sam.—The Buffalo Evening News.

(Special to News) NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 28.—John D. Lawther, director of athletics and head football and basketball coach at Westminster College, will teach basketball at the Davis and Elkins College summer school for coaches in August, Cam Henderson, director announces.

The sixth annual coaching school at Davis and Elkins will start August 21 and run until August 27. Others on the teaching staff include Hank Day, Washington and Jefferson grid coach, who will teach football; and Cam Henderson, Davis and Elkins mentor, who will teach football and basketball.

Lawther is playing baseball with the New Wilmington team this summer, pitching a few games and playing in the field in other contests.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES

By ALEX. J. MORRISON
Central Press Association

ALEX MORRISON SAYS

One of the biggest worries a player has is how far away from the ball he should be. Some days he doesn't have to even think about. Other days he never seems to judge it close enough to enable him to get into a comfortable position.

One reason for this is that he seldom places the same part of the clubface opposite the ball. One time he addresses the toe of the club to the ball. Sometimes, the middle of the clubface.

The player avoids placing the heel of the clubface to the ball for fear of hitting the ball off this part of the club.

However, such a thing shouldn't happen and if he would address the heel of the club to the ball on every shot it would solve many problems about his swing.

NEXT—Wind Allowance.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

There has been a shift in betting on the Sharkey-Carnera heavyweight championship fight listed for 15 rounds in New York tonight. The champ may go into the ring no better than an even choice and post-bly the underdog, which will be the first time the heavyweight challenger has been a favorite in the betting. Ring inactivity can be counted as one of the reasons. Sharkey may be in excellent condition but inactivity brings ring rust and if Jack's judgment of distance is off it will not help him any. Both Sharkey and Carnera are fast. Neither is a great puncher, though knockouts are to be found in their records. In their last fight Sharkey got away from Carnera's left in the latter part of the fight and came on to floor Carnera and win the decision. Since then Carnera is reported as having improved greatly. Just how far Sharkey has slipped back cannot be told until he crawls into the ring and the test of combat comes.

South Hill Midgits South Hill Midgits defeated the Moravia Street All Stars 10 to 6 in a baseball game. The batteries were Moran pitching and Bullock catching for the winners.

Hilltop A. C. Wins Hilltop A. C. baseball team gained a 7 to 0 victory over the St. Andrews Juniors at the Cascade field. Harkless did the pitching for the Hilltoppers and Price did the flogging for the St. Andrews team. Vargo and Richardson did the heaviest hitting of the game.

Owens-Metcalf Plan For Race

Fastest Humans In Country Today Will Race At Chicago In 100 And 200 Meters

By JOHN C. HOFFMAN,
International News Service Sports Writer

CHICAGO, June 28.—It won't make much difference to the customers of the sports business, because most of them will stay away, anyhow, but they'll do the National A. A. U. track and field championships by meters this afternoon and tomorrow to Soldier Field. They did the national collegiate meet by yards two weeks ago and while some 100,000 persons preferred the two-headed baby and the snake swallower next door at the World's Fair, only 5,000 saw the collegiates.

With the privilege of taking it or leaving it, Chicago has chosen to leave it, but curiously enough this lack of patronage will deter in no measure from the spectacle of record-breaking performances and what will unquestionably be the races of the century between Ralph Metcalfe, the Marquette midnight express, and Jesse Owens, the Cleveland high school boy, in the 100 and 200 meters events.

The world's record for the 100 meters is 10.3 seconds, although Metcalfe has a mark of 10.2 up for acceptance. Under the metric system, the distance is approximately 110 yards. That a new record will be established as the result of this race is virtually assured.

Men's Club Will Have Golf Event

Members of the Men's Club of Trinity Episcopal church will on Tuesday, July 11 at 6:30 p. m. hold the first of a series of nine hole golf competitions at Castle Hills course. The affair is open to all men of Trinity Parish and there is general interest in the event.

The first of these events will be a blind bogey handicap event with the winning number to be between 35 and 40.

The members participating are to get their handicaps to Francis S. Sowersby or Harry J. Culliford by Tuesday, July 2.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Down there in the pit where the white lights burn, two men, very much alone in a sea of human heads, will engage in the strangest of all heavyweight championship fights tonight while fate strikes off a trial balance and 50,000 revel in the show. I've said two men but I'm wrong. It's one man and a monstrosity.

As Jack Sharkey, the champion, the American and 205 pounds of mere man, waits the word that will send him in for fifteen rounds against Primo Carnera, the giant of an Italian, he must feel as David did just before he went out to meet Goliath. Much has been made of the fact that Carnera is the first Italian to fight for the heavyweight championship. But far more impressive, at least to Sharkey, is the fact that this is the first circus freak to become involved in this greatest of physical tests. Six feet six and a half inches in height and 265 pounds on the scales, he looks like something that might have climbed down out of a tree.

Carnera is a pusher. True, they've met before without any aftermath that was dire and disastrous. The last time, in fact, Sharkey won. This time, who knows? I don't. Neither does Sharkey.

For while Carnera is generally known as a pusher, not a puncher, he is something of a defensive genius that only real speed can hope to defeat and, on the other side, it seems only fair to state that a 265-pound push is no empty, fluttering gesture.

Altogether, it is one of the most baffling enterprises of recent years, a state of affairs that has been amplified by stories of attempted blackmail in one camp and poisoned food in the other. The blackmail business is understood to have inspired Sharkey to jump camp last Saturday and race by automobile to Boston and back, hardly a beneficial performance for an athlete in training, especially an athlete whose nerves are on a time fuse with the result that they are liable to pop off with and without provocation. However, there are authorities who insist that the man's behavior acted as an emotional safety valve and was, therefore, all for the best. The complete testimony on that won't be filed until some time after ten tonight.

Sharkey's assailant with the strangely white eyes has been in town for the last two days, waiting, just waiting. The other man won't be in until this morning, it being his sensible notion that this fight cannot be fought two days before its time. But Sharkey somehow seeks companionship, now, where once he was bitter, ironic and given to violent outbursts against anyone who might be unfortunate enough to confront his eye.

This time, he has turned almost amiable but I can't say whether it is significant that his popularity has increased accordingly. All I can remember is another man who had to get old before they liked him. The other man was Dempsey and the time of his greatest popularity was the day after his crushing defeat in Philadelphia.

But, as I say, the comparison may be without substance or merit, just as the customary "in the bag" legend this time is without logic or sense. But the fight? Why, most of those concerned couldn't even buy the bag.

Mancuso Breaks Up Game In Eighth By Driving Out Homer

Pirates On Way To Win Second Game As Mancuso Slams Homer

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 29.—One of Gus Mancuso's favorite stunts appears to be hammering out "victory" home-runs in Pittsburgh-New York encounters.

A few weeks ago in Pittsburgh the Giant maskman broke a 7-7 deadlock with an eighth inning homer that proved the margin of victory. Yesterday he poled one into the polo grounds bleachers in the tenth inning with two mates on base that gave New York a 7-4 win in the second game of their double-header with Pittsburgh.

Val Picinich's first hit as a Pirate, a single, started a three-run rally in the eighth frame that clinched the opening game for the itinerant Bucs. Steve Swetonic gave up six hits in winning the first game 5 to 2.

Suhr Hits Two
Two of the half-dozen home-runs that were produced in the twin bill were garnered by Gus Suhr, Pirate first-sacker, who at this time is enjoying the best season of his major league career thus far.

Results of the yesterday's games today placed Pittsburgh a game closer to second position, as St. Louis was dropping two games to Boston while the Bucs were dividing with the Giants. Pittsburgh has won six and lost six of the twelve games played on their road trip. They return July 4 for a long home stay.

East New Castle Merchants Ahead

East New Castle Merchants baseball team handed the Colonial A. C. a 8 to 0 setback last night in a game played at the Shenango High Field. Henry the pitcher for the Merchants allowed only four hits in shutting out the Colonials. The Merchants found Linton and Crammer for 12 hits.

Phillips and Shaffer, had extra-base hits.

Friday night the Boro A. C. will be the attraction at Shenango High Field. On Tuesday July 4, the East New Castle Merchants will play the Elder A. C. in a double bill, the morning game at Elders Field, and the afternoon game at Shenango High Field. The morning game starts at 10:30 o'clock, and the afternoon game at 3 o'clock.

"NO BLOWOUTS on MY 4th of July Trip!"

I'm getting new Goodyears NOW"

PRICES HAVE STARTED UP!

Don't wait to buy your tires!

You can see for yourself these prices are still low. Don't miss them by trying to squeeze a few more miles out of old worn-out rubber.

ALL-WEATHER		PATHFINDER
4.40-21	$6.40	4.40-21	$5.00
4.50-21	7.10	4.50-20	5.40

6.50-19	14.60	5.50-19	8.50

YOU don't need to be told that a thin, risky tire can take all the joy out of driving—but perhaps you have never figured that it costs you money to ride on old tires, with prices on the way up—if you pay more for new tires later on.

So buy now—enjoy your big July 4th week-end—and save yourself some money.

And while you're buying—get the SAFETY of blowout protection in every ply—get the SAFETY of grip in the center of the tread. Only Goodyear can give you the double safety of Supertwist Cord in every ply—and every ply from bead to bead—combined with the safety of the world-famous All-Weather Tread.

You can buy Goodyears—the world's first-choice tires—for not a cent more than tires which give far less value and protection.

YESTERDAY RESULTS

James defeated North Highland five to three on Washington field and the South Side Midgets trimmed the South Side Pirates 18 to 11 on a South Side field yesterday, in baseball. In a mubball tilt, DiPaolo Reliabes won their fifteenth game when they beat Hilltop A. C. 15 to 5 on Cascade field and the Oak A. C. beat Catholic A. C. three to two in a good game on Franklin field. Hilton, E. Nimmo, Greene, L. Nimmo, Gairdo and Gennock each had two hits. Hilton had a triple.

Oaks and Young Yankees play at Franklin field today.

ST. ANDREW'S WINS
St. Andrew's mubball team defeated the Spencer's mubball team 6 to 5 in a well played game last night at the Gaston Park Field. Babe the St. Andrew's pitcher had 15 strikeouts. Home runs were hit by Owens, Shooley and Kneram. The St. Andrew's team has hung up 20 victories this year.

FRIENDLY TEAM WINS
The girls Friendly team of St. Andrew's church played an exhibition mubball game last night at Gaston Park Field, and won from the Giants 18 to 11. Home runs were hit by Ann Hitchen, Hartland, and Fleeger. The Friendly team had 20 hits. Babe Ruth Owens played a fine game in right field for the Giants, making several fine catches. After the game tomorrow night the St. Andrews Men's club will meet in Gaston Park with Mr. Wignall presiding.

Titan Stars Get Life Guard Jobs

Seven Athletes Have Positions As Life Guards During Summer

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 29.—Seven Westminster College athletes have positions as life guards at swimming pools and bathing beaches this summer. Of this number, six passed the senior Red Cross life saving test under Jack Hulme. John Brown is stationed at the Blue Dell pool, McKeesport, Glen Rehus will work at the Sandusky O. beach; Mauno Siljander, is a guard at one of the Pittsburgh city pools; James Watt is at Castle

Beach, New Castle; George Hollander, Alfred Andrews, and Walter Young are all stationed at Long Island beaches.

Universals Cancel Game With Grays

Dean Staley, business manager of the Universal Sanitary semi-pro baseball team announced today that the scheduled game with the famous Homestead Grays for Saturday of this week, has been cancelled. The game will likely be played at a later date. The Universals take cognizance of the fact that local working conditions are picking up, and that the Tin Mill will work Saturday afternoon, and because of the great number of Tin Workers who have expressed a desire to see the Grays play, it was deemed advisable to call the game off. The Grays readily complied with the request made by the Universals favoring the New Castle working men.

Mushball Teams To Have League

East Side Mushball teams are eager for a League and will attempt an organization at a meeting to be held at the Y. M. C. A. at 8:30 o'clock Friday night. The following teams are asked to send representatives to the meeting—St. Andrews, Radiators, Croton Merchants, East Side Merchants, Spencers, Oak A. C. and Thurd U. F. Plans for a league for the next three months will be discussed. Floral print dresses topped with flower trimmed hats are a pretty fashion for summer.

Showers Predicted For Fight Tonight

Weatherman's Forecast May Hold Crowd At New York Fight

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 29.—The weather man's prediction of probable showers for this afternoon and tonight threatened to hold down attendance at the Sharkey-Carnera fight tonight. Gate receipts of $225,000 were predicted, the advance sale being little more than $100,000 early today. It was pointed out fair weather would increase the ticket sale sharply.

Irregular Trend
In Stock MarketSpecial Issues Are Outstanding Strong Spots During MorningPROFIT-TAKING STRONGLY EVIDENT

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 29.—The stock market was dominated today by another erratic session in foreign exchanges, where the dollar strengthened after early weakness, and trading was nervous and the trend irregularly lower.

Special issues, particularly Standard Brands, Deere, Commercial Solvents, and the food shares, were outstanding strong spots while the rest of the list displayed an unsettled undertone.

Grains were lower again but showed a steadier tone after yesterday's wide open break. Cotton was firm and other commodities mixed. Bonds worked higher led by U. S. issues and the rail.

Standard Brands was the outstanding issue, spurring more than 4 points in enormous dealings on rumors the company may go into the liquor business. Its strength stimulated the whole food group with National Dairy Products taken in big blocks to a new high.

Rails were firm but failed to make much progress on the upside. Deere celebrated its first appearance on the big board with a 5 point run-up and temporarily lifted the other farm implement shares.

Profit-taking was heavy and was apparent in the recent spectacular liquor shares, leaders like U. S. Steel and others, utilities, mining and oil shares.

The ticker trailed the whole first hour. The general market failed to make any progress despite the tremendous churning in the active issues.

The uncertainty in speculative circles was apparent throughout over the currency situation as the European gold standard countries continued their battle to prevent devaluation.

Utilities were depressed by the declaration of Governor Lehman that he would press the drive for rate reductions.

To Go On Bivouac

107th Field Artillery Of Ellwood To Get Special Two Days Training

ELLWOOD CITY, June 29.—In order to be more fit for their approaching annual camp period, the 107th field artillery of Ellwood City will go to a two days bivouac beginning tomorrow evening, according to an announcement made today by Capt. W. C. Bower, commander of the outfit.

The 40 members of the outfit and their officers will assemble at the barracks in Frisco early tomorrow evening and begin to pack all equipment for the bivouac. This will be a complete training period for the local unit. They will take their horses, caissons, guns, machine guns, communication system, wireless, etc., with them. Training in all lines will be given. Capt. Bower, Lieut. Holbein and Lieut. Fred Hall will be in charge of this event.

A program of sports and entertainment has been arranged for the outfit when they make camp on the two different days. They will return Sunday evening.

KIDNAP NOTES ANNOY HEAVY KING

On top of his worries, if any, about defending his title against Primo Carnera in a heavyweight championship fight in New York, Thursday, June 29, Jack Sharkey receives several letters threatening the kidnaping of his three children unless $5,000 is turned over to the writer. Above is part of the first page of one of the letters. Also, Sharkey's manager, Johnny Buckley, discussing the notes with reporters at Sharkey home in Chestnut Hill, Mass.

ELLWOOD CITY, June 29.—The members of the Sunshine and Hickory Knell Church of God held a most enjoyable combined meeting Tuesday evening when they gathered at the home of Miss Ruth Marvin on the Cella road for the regular meeting. Forty-seven members and a number of special guests were present.

Miss Wilma Clyde presided at the devotional and business periods. Arrangements for the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Miss Viola Klages in Lillyville on Tuesday evening, July 25, were made.

A wide variety of outdoor games and contests enjoyed around the cheering blaze of the bonfire occupied the attention of the guests and at a late hour a wienner roast brought the events of the evening to a pleasing close.

FITTY THIS COP (International News Service)

BALTIMORE—Charles Moore is an unlucky policeman. A few days ago someone hurled something out of a window and hit him in the eye. Then an automobile tire blew out, as he kicked it, and knocked him down. Now he is recovering from injuries received when hit by a speeding motorist.

Man must be superior. He is the only animal that could end its troubles by not being dumb.

Robert LaVerne Myers, age 10 months, of Kerrville, Tex., can see no reason for all the fuss that has been made over him since he fell out of a second-story window, just before this picture was made. After dropping 20 feet Robert landed on a pillow he was carrying with him and wasn't even scratched.

ROAMING With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

H. E. Kloss, the district engineer of the State Highway Department is convinced that New Castle weather for road or bridge openings has to be extreme. By now he's convinced that there must be a law about it.

Some months ago he came to New Castle to turn over the Willow Grove bridge and the thermometer was down among the fruit jars. About ten below zero or something equally as entertaining. Yesterday he turned over the West Pittsburgh highway and the temperature was around 100.

"You sure don't fool out this way" he groaned as he mopped his face. "Some day we'll turn over a road out here when the weather is just right, but so far it has been either way up or way down."

Summer isn't legal any more without the Lincoln-Garfield school reunion. From just a get-together it has developed into a custom, and gets bigger every year. It's a day when the Slabtown scholars can go back to the days when J. P. Hervey was the principal and Long avenue hill was sparsely settled.

You suspender wearers can take heart. They're a part of American tradition according to H. G. Horton, the Boy Scout executive. "When men wore galluses exclusively, was the day when American was building herself up was the way Horton put it."

Hadn't heard from the Post Laureate of the Slippery Rock for quite a spell. Claims he has been too busy fighting potato bugs and keeping pig weed out of his wife's flower bed. Managed to turn in a blurb today that doesn't do a thing to alleviate the high temperature. If you've read down this far you might just as well read it too.

The sunset tells the knell of parking day, a rolling stone will gather little moss, an empty wagon makes a lot of noise, the summer heat has thrown me for a loss, which only goes to prove a thing or two, that turnip greens have vitamins galore, the paper and the pencil's running short, and so I will not poetize some more.

After reading the copy as it came in, Dexter and Daphne, the talking toads did a duet of snorts and remarked in unison, "the heat hasn't got that guy down, it has him turned over."

The announcement that the Boy Scouts would collect books and magazines for the forest camps at least proves that we had one idea in this column. Now let's all get a bundle together and turn it over to the scouts.

HUGE COPPER STOCK HELD FOR PRICE RISE
(International News Service)
ANYOX, B. C.—A huge stock of 25,000,000 pounds of copper, valued at $1,250,000 is piled near the dock of a large copper corporation here ready for shipment when prices warrant. The company also has between fifty and sixty million pounds stored in the east.

Production is increasing daily as the men, newly employed, increase in efficiency. Officials state the main difficulty is eating up potential profits.

RENEWING CITY LIENS FOR GRADING
Solicitor Robert White today stated that liens are being renewed for grading of Williams street and Blanchard street. The liens are five years old and are now being renewed, according to law, he explained.

Few Try Escape From Unwalled N. Y. Prison

Only eight among hundreds of prisoners have violated the trust placed in inmates of the new state penal institution at Wallkill, N. Y., which has no walls, since it was opened last autumn. Twenty-nine other states now have similar reformatories operated on the "honor system." At this "country club," shown below, prisoners work without guards on the farm, and have their meals in a dining-room as elegant as a big city cafeteria. Each prisoner's room (one of which is pictured) has a comfortable bed, clothes-locker, chair, reading table and wash-basin.

Are Aimee and Dave Ready to Call It Quits?

Aimee in the hospital. Dave appears amazed. Aimee and Dave enjoy a honeymoon breakfast.

In the wake of a sequence of mysterious events in Los Angeles and Paris, where Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton, the California evangelist, is recuperating in a hospital, it has been rumored and denied and rumored again that Aimee and her choir singer hubby, David L. Hutton, Jr., have reached a parting of the ways. Hutton, who married the blonde evangelist 22 months ago following a romantic courtship, contemplates seeking a quick divorce in Nevada, according to one story.

ORGANDIE JACKET, KNEE FLARE SKIRT MODISH

The flare-from-the-knee skirt and white organdie jackets are distinctly 1933. The former is illustrated in the jumper frock, left, which is black posed over a white blouse. The materials are lightweight pebbly woolen and white marocain crepe. The second figure is wearing a black satin dress topped by a white organdie jacket; the third, a swag-gery coat of white fine wale corduroy is sketched. Right, afternoon frock of heavy semi-sheer black crepe is trimmed with white lines.

Name Committees To Hold Conference On Truck Legislation

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 29.—Presiding officers of both houses of the Pennsylvania General Assembly today announced the appointment of representatives to the regional conference on uniform truck legislation which will be held at Harrisburg the latter part of October.

Senator Harry B. Scott, president pro tempore of the senate, appointed Senators William C. Runnaker, Philadelphia, and Joseph R. Ziesenheim. Speaker Grover C. Talbot appointed Reps. Harry H. Brennan, Lycoming and Thomas Weidemann, Delaware.

Sixteen states and the district of Columbia will be represented.

Accuse Man Of Molesting Girl

John Rose, aged about 30, rear of 203 Milton street, was arrested last night by the police, after he had been identified by a twelve year old girl residing on Erie avenue, and a younger brother, as the man, who had allegedly molested her in the vicinity of Riverview avenue along the hillside and adjacent to the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

Rose denies the story of the children. Chief of Police John F. Haven stated late today that he would take Rose before Alderman L. C. Mantz, where he would prefer charges.

Highway Patrol Prepares To Curb Reckless Driving

State highway patrolmen have made plans for curbing reckless operation on Saturday, Sunday and July 4 are also under way. It is anticipated that travel will be heavy beginning the last portion of the week and continuing throughout Independence day and Wednesday.

Mount Pleasant Man Is Killed While Swimming

(International News Service)
GREENSBURG, Pa., June 29.—Lloyd Citro, 26, of Mount Pleasant was killed today as he sought to escape the heat.

Citro, police reported, suffered a broken neck, when his head struck a rock at the bottom of a swimming pool near his home.

POSTAL CLERKS HAVE EXCELLENT MEMORIES

(International News Service)
DENVER—Many Denver postal clerks have perfect memories, J. H. Skidmore, chief clerk in charge of railway mail service in the Denver post office recently declared, in commenting on the 100 per cent rating of Donovan A. Foster, a Michigan postal clerk.

Skidmore said that during the past twelve months no less than 34 Denver railway mail clerks and about the same number of post-office clerks had received grades of 100 per cent on examinations covering location of nearly 5,000 post-offices in Colorado and adjoining states.

WARNS MOTOISTS

(International News Service)
TRENTON—"Don't pass on hills" is the warning to drivers in a statewide automobile safety campaign inaugurated in New Jersey.

SPARED THE ROD FOR SPARE-TIRE TRAVELER

(International News Service)
DOVER, O.—It takes more than a dirty face to keep three-year-old Charles Brown at home.

Because the youngster's face was dirty, his father, Sigel Brown, told him he would be punished by not being allowed to take an 18-mile trip to Dover from their farm home.

When the father arrived here in his automobile, he was startled to find dirty-faced Charles sitting calmly inside the machine's spare tire.

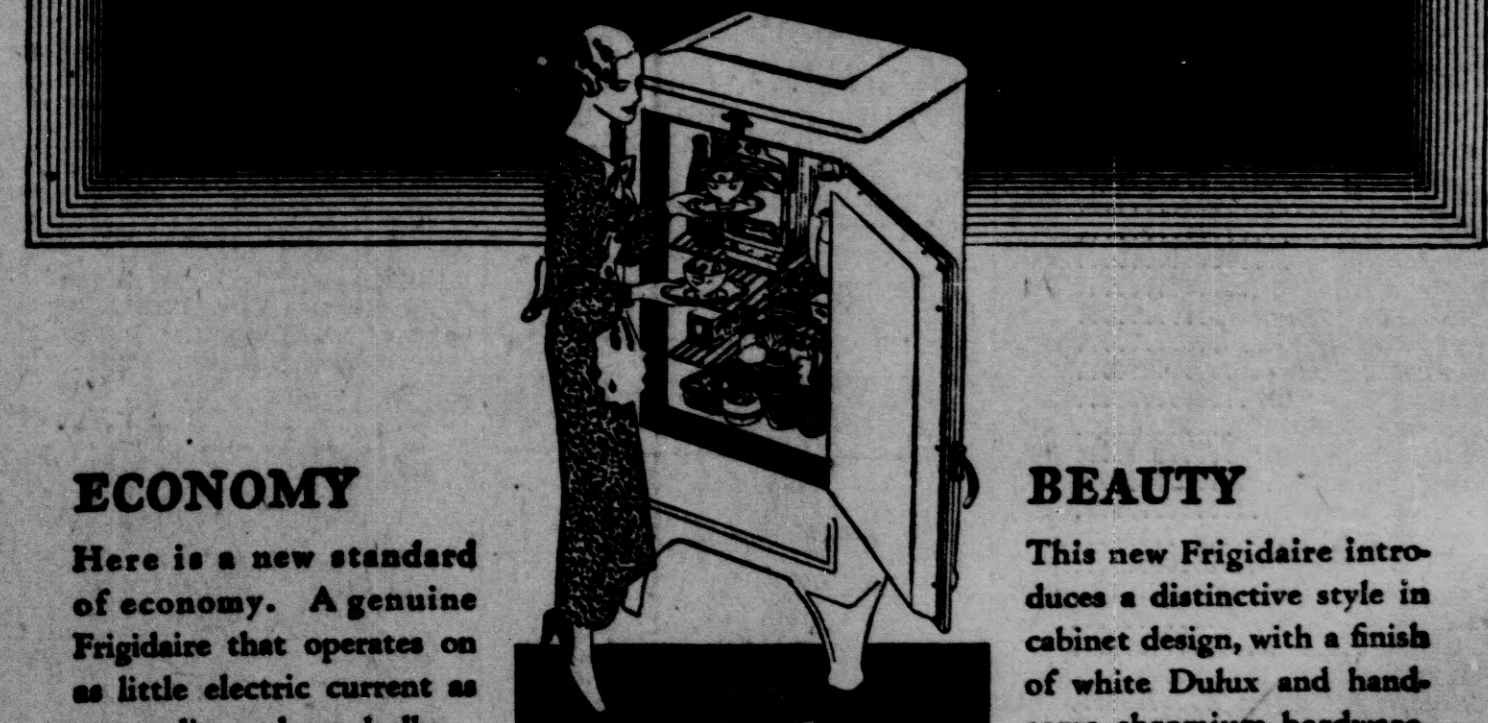

The father spared the rod.

GOED TO DEATH

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES—Gored and trampled by an enraged bull, Andrea Lavarini, dairy helper, died from the injuries here. Attilio Bressi heroically tried to drive away the bull with a pocket knife, distracting the animal after Lavarini was mortally wounded.
